VOL. 1. NO. 237 PRICE FIVE CENTS

DESERTED HIS CHILDREN

J. E. HALL, OF CHICAGO, GOT AWAY WITH MANY THOUSANDS.

COMPANY IS IN RECEIVERS HANDS

Money He Took Was Sunk in Mines and Theatrical Ventures—Has Disappeared and No Trace of Him Can Be Found.

Chicago, Sept. 7.—The appointment of a receiver for the properties of the Belding-Hall Manufacturing company followed close upon a discovery by the creditors of the concern that its fugitive president, Jesse Edson Hall, had appropriated to his own uses at least $315,000 of the corporation's funds.

As far as can be discovered every dollar of this money went into mining stock which was backed up with no tangible property, theatrical ventures which made no money, and other securities which the creditors are willing to sell in a lump for something less than $1,000. Indications yesterday were that Hall would not voluntarily return from Canada and that criminal prosecution would be instituted to bring him back to this country by the First National bank, which holds notes of the company aggregating $100,000.

It appears that Mr. Hall has been "borrowing" the company's money for at least two years. There has been little effort on his part to conceal this fact. The money taken out of the business was secured only by promissory notes signed by Mr. Hall. As he has no other property than the $30,000 worth of Belding-Hall stock, which is worthless until all outstanding bills are paid, it is expected that the $15,000 which he "borrowed" and the $40,000 which he lent to irresponsible persons—$355,000 in all—will be a total loss.

A pathetic feature of the case is the condition of the fugitive's two children, who are living at the Hall home in Winnetka in the charge of a housekeeper. Since Mr. Hall left Chicago, they have received no word from him, neither have they received any money with which to meet the household expenses.

WILLIAM ANDERSON DEAD

A Well-Known Farmer of Near Longwood Passed Away Saturday.

William Anderson, a well known farmer, residing three miles east of Longwood, died of typhoid fever at his home at 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon, death ensuing after a seven weeks' siege with the illness.

Mr. Anderson was 48 years old. He belonged to no church, neither did he hold membership in any lodge or society, but was an honest, upright citizen in the truest sense of the word, and the news of his death will be read of with sorrow.

Deceased is survived by a wife, three children, Mary, Carrie and John Anderson, and four sisters and three brothers, as follows:

Mrs. M. H. Scott, Mrs. L. Ash, Lena, Lillie, Tom, Sam and George Anderson. All reside near the old home.

Funeral services will be held at the Presbyterian church at Longwood at 4 o'clock this afternoon. The interment is to have Rev. D. M. Claggett, of this city, to officiate.

STABS HIS SON TO DEATH

Christ Kelley, Sr., Kills Christ, Jr., for Going Home Drunk.

St. Louis, Sept. 7.—Because his son, aged 20, came home intoxicated last night, Christ Kelley, Sr., stabbed Christ Kelley, Jr., to death with a butcher knife in the presence of other members of the family.

A TEDDY BEAR PARTY

Given in Honor of Seventh Anniversary of Miss Hazel Muckey.

Miss Hazel Muckey celebrated her seventh birthday anniversary at her home, 615 West Fourth street, Saturday afternoon, and in honor of the event entertained twenty young folks in a delightful manner.

The affair was a "Teddy Bear" party, and furnished abundant amusement for all present. The guests returned home late in the afternoon, wishing the hostess the happiness of celebrating many more birthday anniversaries in the manner as yesterday.

Those present were: Frances Grant, Beatrice Shain, Dorothy and Virginia Lee, Florence Lindemann, Irene Berry, Helen and Mary English, Mary Gillespie, Jennie Ayres, Audrey Miller, Ruth Yanow, Ruth Kidd, Leonie Simons, Helen Griffith, Christina Landmann, Gladys Collins, Maud Aspelmier, Lois and Ruth Ecken Kirby, Eula and Bernice Logan, Mamie Keplinger, Alice Fletcher, Virginia Flower, McCutcheon, Helen Simpson, Ruth Fuels, Frances Adams and Hazel Muckey.

REV. F. HAUSSER CALLED

NUMBER OF YEARS AGO HE WAS PASTOR OF A CHURCH IN SEDALIA.

HE DIED AT PUEBLO, COLORADO

Deceased Was Sixty-Eight Years of Age and Leaves a Widow and Six Children—Some of the Charges He Held.

The Rev. F. Hausser, a popular former Sedalia divine, died at Pueblo, Colo., Thursday night, and the Pueblo Chief of Police of Friday contained the following regarding the life work of the deceased:

Rev. F. Hausser, pastor of the German M. E. church, died of paralysis last night. Deceased was 68 years of age and leaves a widow and six children. Services at 2 p. m. today at church, corner Arroyo and Cedar street.

Rev. F. Hausser was born in Marbach, Wurttemberg, Germany, February 8, 1829. He received his religious training at home.

In 1864 he was converted under the pastorate of his brother, Rev. G. Hausser, who is now pastor in Scranton, Pa.

He sailed for New York in 1864 and for many years made New York city his home. In 1884 he left New York to take up a charge in Nebraska City, Neb.

His charges were Nebraska City, Neb., Atchison, Kas., Denver, Colo., Sedalia, Mo., Kansas City, Mo., and his last charge was Pueblo.

During his first pastorate in Denver, 1889, he was sent to Pueblo and started the German M. E. mission, which has developed into a flourishing church.

A year ago the West German conference sent him to Pueblo. His work here during the past year has been crowned with great success, a number having been added to the church.

He won the love and esteem of all his members and all with whom he came in contact.

DEATH OF MRS. EDWARDS

Funeral Services at S. R. Payne's Home This Afternoon.

Mrs. Corinne Edwards, wife of Alfred Edwards, of St. Louis, died of tuberculosis at the home of her uncle, S. R. Payne, 320 West Fourth street, at 6:45 o'clock Friday evening.

Mrs. Edwards was 20 years old last April and leaves a husband, nineteen months' old daughter, a father, J. W. Payne, of St. Louis; a brother, Carlisle Payne, also of St. Louis, and three sisters, as follows: Mrs. Ben Gorrell, of Sedalia; Mrs. Della Haines, of Louisville, Ill.; and Mrs. Anna Mitchell, of Livingston, Mont.

Mrs. Edwards was formerly a member of the Christian church, of St. Louis. She had been ill a year, and bedfast since January.

Funeral services will be conducted by Rev. J. F. Caskey, pastor of the Fifth Street M. E. church, South, at Mr. Payne's residence at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon, and interment will be in the city cemetery.

Mrs. Harvey MacGugin will have charge of the music and the following will serve as pallbearers:

Peter Kuhn, J. M. Dohel, E. B. Lyon, L. F. Ritchie, Edward Gorrell and Edward McCoy.

Came to Daughter's Funeral.

J. M. Payne, a former Sedalian, now of St. Louis, arrived here Saturday afternoon in response to a telegram telling him of the death of his daughter, Mrs. Corinne Edwards.

NOT A CASE OF SUICIDE

MYSTERIOUS "NETTIE SNYDER" MET PATHETIC DEATH NEAR TIPTON, MO.

SHE SAID SHE LIVED IN ST. LOUIS

Told a Farmer That Her Sweetheart Worked in the Postoffice in the Mound City—Latest Developments in Case.

Tipton, Mo., Sept. 7.—It has been established that the skeleton found in a hogpen fifty yards from the much-traveled St. Louis and Kansas City road, two and one-half miles east of Tipton, was that of the woman who registered at the City hotel, June 4, as Miss Nettie Snyder, of Smithton, Mo. But the mystery of who Nettie Snyder was may never be solved.

All the circumstances indicate that she did not commit suicide. It is probable that she crawled into the partially covered pigpen to find shelter and lay there until she starved to death.

The woman was cared for a month at the farmhouse of James E. Seal, one mile north of Syracuse, which is six miles west of Tipton. On the morning of June 4 he drove her to Tipton and left her at the hotel. There she remained for two days, refusing to eat anything except two bananas. She was turned out by the landlord, and wandered over fields in the neighborhood of Tipton for two or three days, and then disappeared.

Said She Lived in St. Louis.

During the month the woman was at the farmhouse she resented every effort made by Seal and his neighbors to ascertain her identity. She said her home was in St. Louis, but refused to say where or with whom she lived. She told Seal that she left St. Louis early in May and went to Smithton in search of a man named Johnson, who had possession of her money. She made her way to a point a little north of Tipton, where she was first seen in this part of the country by Thomas Hutchinson, a farmer.

This was early in May. Hutchinson found the woman sitting under a little tree, trying to snuff her herself from the rain. Although she was drenched to the skin, she refused any aid. The next day she moved into Gilroy schoolhouse, where she locked herself in and remained for two days without food.

The woman's condition aroused the sympathies of Seal and his family and he had her moved to his home against her wishes. Her clothes had been wet for days, and within an hour after her shoes were removed her feet were swollen to more than twice their normal size. Seal called in Dr. Bridges, of Syracuse, and he treated the woman for a month. She seemingly had recovered her health, and Seal, feeling that he could not provide for her any longer, and the county authorities of Cooper county having refused to take care of her, he took her to Tipton and left her at the hotel.

The broad-rimmed, blue-trimmed hat she wore when she left Seal's home, a water glass with the name of a baking powder firm blown in it, a broken-handled umbrella and a partially filled bottle of carbolic acid, all of which were found among the woman's effects, positively identify her as the woman who called herself Nettie Snyder.

Told Sweetheart's Name.

"I tried many times to find out who this woman was," said Seal to a reporter. "She would answer me by saying that what was everybody's business was nobody's business. She was a woman of apparent refinement and education. She spoke German fluently, and said she was a member of the German Lutheran church. She said she was not married, and that she had a sweetheart named Nunn in the St. Louis postoffice. Once she told me that she lived with a family named Brown in St. Louis, and she had a baker who was a good friend, but I don't recall the name she gave. She said also that she had an acquaintance named Thompson in Cincinnati."

"She always insisted that she had plenty of money, that her people were well-to-do, but she never wrote to anybody or made any inquiries about her people. She said she was raised by an uncle in Ohio. When I would press her for names and ad-resses of people she knew she would shut up like a clam.

"While she was here we examined her suit case. There was not a scrap of paper in it that would throw any light on her identity. She was at times plainly demented, but at other times she seemed perfectly rational."

"The woman told me she was 30 years old. She was about 5 feet 6 inches tall and very slender. She had black or dark brown hair, heavy brown eyebrows, keen black eyes, a dark complexion and a freckled face. When I would ask her what she was doing here her answer was invariably, 'Money matters.' She wanted me to make out a board bill when

KILLED BY HER HUSBAND

WIFE OF RICH CHICAGO MAN FOUND DEAD IN ROOM AT HOME.

SLAYER WAS LYING BESIDE HER

His Throat Was Cut and He May Die—The Couple Had Been Heard in a Violent Quarrel the Night Before.

Chicago, Sept. 7.—Mrs. Fred M. Fish, wife of a wealthy retired broker, was found murdered in her home at 423 Davis street, Evanston, at an early hour today. Her husband was found with his throat cut, unconscious on the floor of his bedroom, in which the body of Mrs. Fish was lying.

It is the opinion of the police that Fish killed his wife and then attempted to commit suicide. He was hurried to a hospital, but has not yet recovered consciousness, and it is doubtful if he revives sufficiently to make a statement.

The cause of the tragedy is unknown. Mr. and Mrs. Fish were heard by neighbors in a violent altercation late last night, and it is believed that Fish arose early today and after shooting his wife in the head with a shot gun hacked her in a horrible manner with a butcher's cleaver.

A servant girl who was in the house declared that she heard the report of a shot gun early this morning, and the cleaver with which Mrs. Fish was mangled was found lying beside the bed.

Fish had been for twenty years associated with a commission house which recently retired from business. He was in poor health and for some time had been suffering attacks of despondency.

TO WED WEDNESDAY

Miss Neva Butters, of Sedalia, and Prof. Kessler, of Hutchinson, Kas.

Miss Neva Butters, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Butters, well known residents of this city, and Prof. Rodney J. Kessler, secretary of the Salt City Business college, at Hutchinson, Kas., will be married quietly in this city next Wednesday. Rev. S. S. Martin will perform the ceremony.

The wedding will be attended only by relatives and a few friends, and the couple will leave the same night for Hutchinson, Miss Butters' former home, to reside permanently.

Prof. Kessler is an intelligent and refined gentleman, while his bride is a popular and accomplished young lady, whose acquaintances are numbered by the hundreds, all of whom take pleasure in extending hearty congratulations.

AGREE NOT TO BUY VOTES

Both Parties in Caroline County, Md., Sign Odd Pact.

Elkton, Md., Sept. 7.—To stamp out election corruption, especially that in which money figures, both parties in Caroline county held a meeting last night and signed an agreement to refrain from buying votes, bribing and debauching the electorate with liquor.

Another feature of the agreement is to limit campaign expenses on each side to $1,000 and, after election, to publish itemized accounts of expenditures.

Sent to Jail for Ten Days.

John Cornelius was given ten days in jail by Judge Clark Saturday for petit larceny, the prosecuting witness being Barney Bertman.

PIANIST DID NOT WRITE

SHE WAS A MEMBER OF THE ROBINSON STOCK CO., AT AIR-DOME TWO WEEKS

THEN H. S. BRACE TOOK HIS LIFE

Used to Live in Fort Scott, Got Tired of Waiting for a Letter From "Maida" and Used a Bullet and Poison

Miss Maida Lapham, who last night closed a six weeks' engagement at the Airdome with the Robinson Stock Co., as pianist, was almost prostrated Saturday over the news that H. S. Brace, an acquaintance, had committed suicide in St. Louis Friday because the love he had expressed for her was not reciprocated.

Miss Lapham is only 15 years of age, but is unusually well developed for her years, and there has never been so much as a breath of suspicion against her character. Miss Maida's mother has been with her daughter since she joined the Robinson company, and the two will leave this morning for Muskogee, I. T., where Mr. Lapham and a son are located.

The following dispatch from St. Louis tells the story of the suicide of young Brace:

H. S. Brace, of East St. Louis, formerly of Fort Scott, Kas., a telegraph operator, waited vainly a week for some message from Maida Lapham, an actress, and finally in despair of hearing from her or winning back her favor, ended his life with a revolver today in his boarding house at 326 Illinois avenue. Poison tablets scattered on the floor indicated that Brace had made death doubly sure. He left the following note:

"Maida, I can't forget you. You are on my mind all the time. I am afraid if I live I will lose my mind over you. Oh, why don't you write to me. You can't understand the suffering I go through because I can't hear from you. I feel that I could kill myself if I could be near you, which I can't be now. If I ever kill myself it will be on account of you. No boy ever loved a girl as I love you. Good-bye and God bless you, Maida."

Brace had often spoken to H. West, his roommate, and others, of an actress who lived at Fort Scott, Kas. He called her Alice Williams, and that is supposed to be her real name. West believes Maida Lapham is her stage name. One of Miss Lapham's cards found among Brace's belongings bore this inscription:

"Musical directress, Robinson Stock company, summer season 1907."

Brace looked anxiously through his mail when he returned from work today, and remarked:

"I guess I lose."

Then he went to his room and killed himself. His father lives in Fort Scott.

Additional information bearing on the case is found in the following dispatch from Fort Scott, Kas.:

H. S. Brace, the young man who committed suicide in St. Louis today, was a son of J. L. Brace, who for many years was agent for the St. Louis & San Francisco and the old Memphis road in Washburn Junction, three miles south of here. He learned telegraphy under his father at that station. His parents recently moved to Nevada. Miss Maida Lapham is the 15-year-old daughter of C. E. Lapham, who is now living in Coffeyville. His family lives here.

Brace was much attached to her. After he went to St. Louis he wrote to her persistently, but she did not reciprocate his affections and refused to answer his letters. A few days ago she received a letter from him in which he threatened to kill himself by jumping off the Eads bridge if she did not answer that letter. The young man was 26 years old and was a graduate of the Fort Scott High school.

Miss Lapham began her stage career here only a few months ago in a singing act at a five-cent picture show. She had just finished her studies in the grammar grades and entered the High school. She is on the circuit now.

GAVE A PLATFORM DANCE

At the Home of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Denny Friday Night.

A platform dance was given by Morris Clifford at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Denny, Friday night, with quite a large attendance, and all had a most enjoyable time. Those present were: Misses Ina, Lela and Althea Denny, Mary Clifford, Sarah Luck, Emma Kabrs, Stella Smith, Ella Cronin, Mrs. Bohon, Mrs. Clifford, Mrs. Joe Bohon and Miss Drexler; Messrs. Percival Dubbs, Ebersole, Daniel Green, Willie Thomas, Will Harriman, Lee Parish, Will Freeman, Ed Woolery, Emmet Woolery, Don Clifford, Dave Shipp, Walter Shipp, Maurice Clifford, Joe Bohon, John Bohon, Louis Weinsburg, Henry Weinsburg, Tom Baum, Mike Clifford, Lionel Clifford, Tim Clifford, Will McGee, Charley Orcutt, Henry Erennecke, Grover Denny and Charles Clifford.

The music was furnished by Willie Thomas, Lee Parish and John Bohon.

IT MAY DELAY HIS START

WALTER WELLMAN SAYS MUST HAVE FAVORABLE WIND BY SEPTEMBER 10.

OTHERWISE POLAR DASH TO WAIT

Would-Be Explorer Says He Wants to Find the North Pole, Not Commit Suicide—May Delay a Year.

Trondhjem, Norway, Sept. 7.—No word has been received here as to the Walter Wellman Polar expedition. A dispatch from Hammerfest August 23 stated that the aeronauts were ready to start at any time and were waiting a favorable wind. The dispatch further said that Mr. Wellman had stated that no start would be possible after September 6. (Later dispatches put the time limit at September 10.)

Paris, Sept. 7.—In the Echo de Paris this morning M. Robert Chauvelot reports his last interview with Walter Wellman. He says the question whether the aeronaut will start for the pole will soon be answered. When he left Mr. Wellman, the wind was blowing strong from the north. The American explorer stated that unless there was a wind from the south by September 10, his attempt should be abandoned for this year, for then the polar night commences.

"We cannot leave," added Mr. Wellman, "for a north wind would drive us south of the archipelago and an east wind up to Greenland. I want to reach the pole and not commit suicide."

"If, therefore, Mr. Wellman does not find a wind favorable before September 10 he will deflate his balloon and bring it to Paris to wait until August of next year to make his start."

Wellman was ready to go last year, but owing to delays no start was made.

WED BY REV. MARTIN

Mr. Claude Mahan and Miss Madge Smith Saturday.

Claude Mahan, employed in the construction department of the Bell telephone company, and Miss Madge Smith, daughter of Mrs. Kittie Smith, of 210 South Prospect avenue, were married by Rev. S. S. Martin at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the home of the bride's mother.

Relatives and a few friends attended the ceremony, which was simple but impressive. The couple left over the Missouri Pacific during the afternoon for Kansas City to spend their honeymoon, after which they will return here to reside.

A large number of friends and a few relatives of the contracting parties were present at the station to bid good by to the couple. The bride's suit case, likewise the groom's were seized by force, and old shoes, slippers, telephone wires and other rubbish tied to them.

Mr. Mahan is a gentleman of the highest type, always courteous and genial, and has many friends who will wish him and his bride a long and happy life.

Mrs. Mahan is one of the city's most popular young girls, with a sweet disposition that causes all to admire her, and hearty congratulations will be extended by every acquaintance.

Forty Persons Baptized.

The Baptists have been holding a protracted meeting at Olive Branch church, near Beaman, and Saturday over forty persons were immersed.

STORMS ARE PREDICTED

SEISMIC SHOCKS TO BE FELT WITHIN THE NEXT FORTY-EIGHT HOURS.

MUCH RAIN, WITH EARLY FROSTS

Fact Is, According to Irl R. Hicks, St. Louis Weather Prophet, Unusual Conditions Will Prevail This Month.

Irl R. Hicks, the St. Louis weather prophet, is of the opinion that September will be disturbed, if not phenomenally stormy. The astronomic outlook, he says, strongly points to such results.

In his forecast Mr. Hicks says that storms will sweep progressively over the country, and that seismic shocks will be felt in many places within forty-eight hours of noon of the 7th.

The second storm period will be general on the 9th, 10th and 11th, and this he calls the "annual crisis of magnetic unrest."

He adds that heavy storms of rain, hail, wind and thunder will move out of the northwest, and be followed by a great change to cooler, with probable frosts.

Severe storms are to be expected, according to Mr. Hicks, from the 14th to the 19th. This he calls the crisis of the autumnal equinox, with Jupiter, Saturn, Mercury, Vulcan and Venus "all central in disturbing energy."

He adds that "this period, and this whole central part of the month is full of perturbing causes and phenomenal possibilities," and that "the chances are that general storms and atmospheric unrest will continue several days."

Another storm period is predicted for the 20th to the 22d, the forecaster adding that many volcanic and seismic convulsions also will be reported within forty-eight hours of sunset on the 21st.

Pierce gales, and an "almost early winter out of the northwest" are also among the probabilities. He says that "all the lake regions, especially, should beware of these storms and the change following."

The first storm period, according to Mr. Hicks, will be central on the 27th, and its culminating days will be Friday to Sunday, 27th to 29th. Then there will be a change to warmer, with falling barometer, with a return to marked storm conditions.

The forecast closes with the statement that there will be a notable increase of sun spots, and that "unless there is a compensating resultant of varying forces that we cannot now see the meteorological record for September, taking the whole world over, will approach the phenomenal."

SAYS MARRIAGE IS VOID

Jesse H. Persley Files Suit to Have It Set Aside.

Jesse H. Persley, of Postal, who at the point of revolvers in the hands of a brother and brother-in-law of the bride to be, was forced to marry Emma Kabler, of Beaman, in this city last Wednesday morning, through Attorneys O'Bannon, Barnett & Barnett, Saturday instituted proceedings in the Pettis county circuit court to have the marriage annulled, declaring in the petition that it was involuntary on his part, and that in view of this fact is not legal.

Attorney O'Bannon stated Saturday that in addition to an application for divorce, suit for damages would probably be brought against the Kablers, and that the brother and brother-in-law of the bride would likely be arrested for highway robbery.

THE DEATH LIST IS NOW 14

Three of Injured in Yesterday's Rock Island Wreck Died Today.

Waterloo, Ia., Sept. 7.—Three more of those injured yesterday in the wreck of the northbound Rock Island express train died in the hospital here this morning. This increases the death list to fourteen.

Old Settlers Had Meeting.

The regular meeting of the Old Settlers' association of Pettis county was held Saturday afternoon at Dr. R. T. Miller's office. Eighteen new members were admitted, increasing the total membership to 360. Arrangements are being made to attend the state fair here on "Old Settlers' day" on October 7.

THE WHOLE STATE INTERESTED

A pretty bad state of affairs is said to exist in Jackson county, this state, regarding the failure to collect taxes on first class real estate.

Recently one member of the county court has taken the matter up, and though he has insisted on the collector pressing these collections, his position was not endorsed by the other members of the court, and his efforts have amounted to nothing so far as obtaining any tangible results are concerned.

Jackson is the wealthiest county in Missouri, having a total assessment this year of 150 million dollars, and almost every foot of ground in the county is very valuable, some of it immensely so, yet the county collector reports $353,533.44 delinquent back taxes uncollected, and of this $82,147.46 was on real estate and assessed prior to 1906, some of it reaching as far back as 1898.

This real estate, it is said, is in Kansas City, and quite a number of owners are wealthy Kansas City residents, easily reached and easily proceeded against in the courts.

While to some this may appear to be purely a local matter, and one for the citizens of Jackson county alone to settle, it must not be forgotten that the state itself is vitally interested, as a generous portion of this $353,533.44 belongs to the whole commonwealth, and should long ago have been in the treasury at Jefferson City for use in conducting state affairs.

If Jackson county doesn't collect its share of state taxes, then it makes an additional burden for the people elsewhere to bear, and in consequence it can not be taken unless that attention is called to the conditions existing.

It may be said here that the derelict officials act passed by the last legislature doesn't apply only to prosecuting attorneys who refuse to enforce the dramsop laws, but can be brought into effective use with county collectors who refused to perform the duties for which they were elected.

If, therefore, the charges made regarding Jackson county are true, it might not be a bad idea for Governor Folk to send an assistant attorney general to Kansas City for the purpose of seeing that the taxes are collected as prescribed by law.

THE JOINT STATEHOOD QUESTION.

The question of joint statehood for Arizona and some other territory has been dropped and brought up again. There was an official announcement from Oyster Bay that there would be no further attempt on the part of the president to bring up the question of joint statehood with Arizona and New Mexico when congress meets again. It will be recollected that one of the hot partisan fights of the last session was over this proposition. Along with the joint statehood of Oklahoma and Indian territory, there was the scheme to combine Arizona and New Mexico and admit this new state also. This was perfectly satisfactory to New Mexico, with a large preponderance of the joint voting population, but it met with little enthusiasm from Arizona, who saw her revenues and her policies controlled thenceforth by the sister territory with a practically solid Mexican population.

The object of the move was, of course, to get Arizona and New Mexinto the Union at the same time, and if, as was most likely, the new state proved persistently democratic, to at least save having two senators and a large number of representatives from that party in congress.

The issue was fought out and the opposition was so strong that there was no more talk of joint statehood, and now it has been officially announced that this issue will not be revived. But in the next breath the proposition is advanced to bring up the joint statehood question next year with Arizona and Nevada, the latter with a population three times that of Arizona, and a state that can reasonably well be counted on as republican.

There is no question in the world that this suggestion will be fought by Arizona just as hard as was the combination with New Mexico. The object of the move is the same, and the people of Arizona will naturally rather stay out of the Union than to come in under such a handicap.

WIRELESS TELEPHONES NOW.

One of the latest installations that is contemplated by the navy is a system of wireless telephones for the battleships. A few years ago this would have been looked upon as an absolute chimera. But applied science has advanced to a point where a device is offered to the navy that it is believed will fill this bill. Practically all the ships of the navy are fitted with wireless telegraph instruments. These work according to the strength of the electrical equipment up to 1,000 and 1,200 miles. They serve to keep the warships at almost all times in direct touch with Washington, for it is seldom that by a system of relays from other ships or shore stations any vessel of the navy can not be picked up and communicated with in a few hours in almost any part of the world.

Some of the older naval officers are absolutely disgusted over this state of affairs. They swore with deep sea oaths many years ago that the submarine cable had ruined the naval service, keeping the commander always at the end of a wire that ended in the navy department. But the wireless instruments are much worse. The wireless telephone, however, is a milder form of control. It is intended merely to keep the ships of a squadron in touch with the commander at night, and in weather when the wig-wag and the Ardoise lights would be out of the question. The wireless telephone now works up to five miles in any sort of weather, and under favorable conditions much further. It is infinitely quicker than flag or lamp signals, but it will probably create a demand for expert stenographers in the navy.

Cardinal Gibbons says that wealth without religion is a very unsatisfactory condition. Doubtless, at the same time there are some of us who would be willing to relieve our impotency at the expense of a little agnosticism.

It ought to be a source of satisfaction to Judge Landis to think that he is still several laps ahead of President Castro, who fined the Asphalt trust only $5,000,000.

Many thoughtless American papers are insisting on the necessity of home rule. But in that case what would our American cities do for a police force?

It strikes us that there ought to be

ENGINEERS MAY STRIKE

Missouri Pacific Employees Have Difference With General Manager.

A strike that will involve all the locomotive engineers on the Missouri Pacific system may be called next week. A vote of the engineers on the proposition to strike is now being taken, says the Kansas City Star.

The cause of the proposed strike is a difference between the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and A. W. Sullivan, general manager of the Missouri Pacific, over the working contract. An agreement was reached on all of the details except one. This involves the movement of the engines between the train and the roundhouse. The engineers, after a long run, are averse to spending an hour or two in getting the engines from the depot to the roundhouses. Only engineers on passenger trains are required to handle the engines between the train and the roundhouse. The engineers think that this work ought to be done by the roundhouse hostlers.

Engineers are paid from $4 to $4.50 a hundred miles, and are allowed overtime for handling engines between the train and the roundhouses. There are 3,000 engineers employed on the Missouri Pacific system.

Pupil Teachers Chosen.

At a meeting of the teachers' committee of the Sedalia school board, Friday, Miss Edith McCubbin was elected pupil teacher at Broadway school, while at a meeting of the committee Saturday Miss Mollie Harris was elected pupil teacher of Southeast school, and Miss Jael Carterwhite was transferred to room No. 1. Broadway, from the same grade in Summit school. Previously Miss Ruthana Brown had been elected pupil teacher in Summit school.

Dispatcher's Office on Fire.

Sparks from a Missouri Pacific engine set fire to the roof of the dispatcher's office of the company at Jefferson City at 8 o'clock last night, doing several hundred dollars worth of damage. For over an hour communication over the wire with the dispatcher's office was impossible. Instruments were connected with the office equipment in the new depot and telegraphic communication resumed.

Central Business College Items.

The C. B. C. gymnasium and bath rooms will be open and ready for active work tomorrow. The students Y. C. A. and reading room will be opened tomorrow. Mr. Loh Baptiste will have charge of the young men's class, and the teacher for the young ladies' class will be selected from over fifty applicants, graduates from one of the best physical culture colleges in the United States. A number of applicants are graduates from the McFadden School of Physical Culture. The best is none too good for Sedalia.

Those who wish to enter Central business college should make application for a scholarship at the earliest possible date. The enrollment has been phenomenal this year. We have the best class of students this year that we have ever seen in a college. The intelligent, bright pupils enter our school, while the ignorant class, the class that is easily prejudiced, attend a school that secures most of its pupils by prejudicing and warping the minds of the ignorant, unsophisticated persons, who have but little knowledge of the world.

Our telegraph school will be moved to the corner of Second and Lamine is week, so that the room formerly occupied by this department in the main college building can be used for other departments that are increasing so rapidly.

We have entered into a five year contract with a telegraph teacher who will move his family to Sedalia and take charge of the telegraph department in its new quarters this week. He is a man who comes directly from a position as telegraph operator on the railroad and we confidently expect good results from his work with us.

We have placed every pupil who is willing to leave school the past week in a good position. Most of our pupils are preparing themselves for a higher grade work with first class marks at from $60 to $80 per month start with. They have carefully watched their fellow pupils prepare themselves and step into $70 and $80 positions and they know they can do likewise if they take my thorough course.

Home From the Races.

F. O. Ceideburg and Sam Stevens, who have been in Michigan and the north for several months, attending races in the grand circuit, returned Friday. Mr. Ceideburg left the day for a visit in the west.

FIRE LOSS WAS $9,500

SAID TO HAVE BEEN STARTED BY SMALL BOYS SMOKING CIGARETTES.

A MEETING OF THE COUNCIL HELD

Manager Andrews, of the City Water Co., Explained Why It Was the Stand Pipes Were Without Water.

The total damage by the fire on East Sixth street Friday afternoon, the details of which were told completely in that day's issue of the Democrat-Sentinel, amounted to about $9,500.

Dr. Herrick suffered a complete loss, $4,500. He had no insurance.

F. L. Farley's dwelling, which burned to the ground, was valued at $2,500, with $2,500 insurance, while the furniture, owned by W. M. May, was damaged to the extent of $1,000, partially covered by insurance.

Lee Riley, employed by M. M. Stevenson, who roomed at Dr. Herrick's, suffered a $500 loss.

From the best information obtainable the fire was started by boys throwing stubs of lighted cigarettes in the straw at Dr. Herrick's barn.

At a special meeting of the council, Friday night, to ascertain why the stand pipes were without water, L. P. Andrews, of the Water company, explained that on last Tuesday night the bottom of a new "Y" connection at Twentieth and Ohio streets had fallen out and this was followed by the pump and engine at the pumping station becoming disabled.

On account of these accidents, which were unavoidable, only the East Sedalia stand pipe could be kept filled with water, and while repairs were being made to the pump and engine Friday the water mains in the business section and west side residence district went dry.

Mr. Andrews further stated that as soon as the new machinery could be put to work the old engine and pump would be placed in good condition and held in reserve for cases of emergency like that of Friday.

On motion of Alderman Andler, the committee on water and fire was instructed to visit the pumping station and investigate the present condition of the machinery installed there and report at the meeting of the council Monday night.

Mayor Collins and Mr. Andler were added to the committee, which is composed of Messrs. Crawford, DeJarnett and Igenfritz.

A resolution was offered by Alderman Hatton, viz.:

"It is the sense of the council that the provisions of the contract between the water company and the city, agreed upon and made valid by ordinance, be strictly enforced and that if the water company has violated its obligations to at once proceed to collect the penalties provided for failure to comply with the contract."

THE CAT THAT REASONED.

Family Pet Made the Best of Unfamiliar Situation.

"Talking about the ability of animals to reason," said a citizen, "you ought to see my wife's cat. He is a spoiled beast, and in the evening when the family is sitting about the lamp no objection is made to his jumping up on the table and walking around to be petted. But one thing he has learned by dint of several good whippings is that he must never get up on the table when it is spread for a meal. Well, one night recently when we came home from the theater and my wife spread a cloth over the end of the table. The cat just then entered the room. Walking to the table he was about to jump up when he caught sight of the white cloth over one end. It was plain that he was puzzled. First he went to the end that had no cloth, hesitated, and then returned to look at the end that contained the cloth. My wife and I stood still to watch him, and we had no doubt that he was assuring himself that the cloth was really there. At length he jumped up on a chair by the table so as to survey its top. The half of the table at which he sat was free from the cloth, and finally he very cautiously climbed up on the table and slowly crossing over to the half which contained the cloth, sat down at the very edge."

You were my queen in calico,

And you wrote on your slate, "I love you, Joe,"

When we were a couple of kids.

This is a popular song, and it touches the heart of old and young. Do you know why we try to do our level best for the children?

The answer is a selfish one, dear reader. This store is not built for a day, so its future is in their hands, not yours or ours. The good old golden rule, school days slip rapidly into the past, and the queen in calico, and the bashful, barefoot beau are the men and women of an all too-soon tomorrow.

It's selfish on our part, but it's also kindly and good judgment, and that is why there is not anything too good for the children in this store.

Come early tomorrow morning and see how well we have provided for the children.

T. C. Andrew returned Wednesday from an extended eastern trip. Mrs. Andrew returned Friday afternoon with Mrs. R. W. Burkhardt and baby, of Louisville, Ky.

Ed Berry and family and Miss Angie Berry returned Thursday night from a delightful trip of two weeks through Southern Missouri.

The contract for the erection of the new school building was let on Tuesday, Louis Mueller, of this city, securing the contract, his bid being considered best of the five submitted. Work will be begun immediately on the new building, which will be ready for occupancy by Jan. 1. The contract price was for $18,140. Mr. Mueller allowing $1,000 salvage on the burned building. The contract for the heating and plumbing apparatus was given to a Kansas City firm at a cost of $2,750.

Mrs. G. L. Daniel was hostess to a number of the friends of her little sons at their pretty country home south of the city last Friday. A visit to the country is in itself a treat to town children, especially when it is an all day affair, with an excellent dinner thrown in. A delightful day was spent by all, Mrs. Daniel proving herself to be a most capable hostess in every particular.

The beautiful home of Mrs. J. W. Bellamy was the scene of a merry party Wednesday evening, at which time about twenty-five children were entertained by Harold and Russell Bellamy at a Teddy bear party. The clever hostess had painted a picture of a huge bear, and each guest was given an opportunity to pin a cherry to its mouth. Some of the attempts were ludicrous in the extreme, the cherry landing on almost every part of the bear's anatomy. Prizes were awarded to Mary Olive Francisco and J. C. Reavis. Dainty refreshments were served, and the entertainment was a credit in every way to the young hosts and their mother.

The music lovers of Sweet Springs and vicinity are anticipating a treat in the concert to be given Monday evening in the Christian church under the direction of Mr. Bailey Barbour, of St. Louis. In addition to the chorus of thirty voices, there will be the best soloists procurable from local talent, both vocal and instrumental. Mrs. Josephine Fisher, of Kansas City, will also assist. Mr. Barbour is a musician of recognized ability in St. Louis, Macon City and other parts of the state, and Sweet Springs people are fortunate in being favored with an entertainment under his direction.

POSTAL SUES THE UNION

Telegraphers Demand That a Chaser Be Sent After Each Message.

Chicago, Sept. 7.—The Postal Telegraph company began suit today against the Commercial Telegraphers' Union of America on the grounds that the latter had contracted a debt on the transmission of messages and that no payment had been made thereon. According to officials of the telegraph company no answer was made when bills for the telegrams were presented to the union. Upon inquiry they were told that the union declined to make payment unless the telegraph company would certify that the messages had reached their destination by sending a "chaser" after each message.

The company refused to comply with this request, and as no settlement could be reached the telegraph company brought suit today. The messages in question were filed with the telegraph company since the strike of the operators began. The case was set for September 11.

Did They Take the Horse by Force?

Two middle-aged white men, strangers here, were arrested by the constabulary Saturday, charged with forcibly taking a horse away from Jesse Wilkerson, a crippled son of James Wilkerson. Judge Rickman will hear the evidence tomorrow. The men allege they traded Wilkerson for the animal, while the latter contends they took it by force.

Chocolate Cake.

One cup of granulated sugar, one-half scant cup of butter, yolks of two eggs and one white, one-half cup of strong coffee creamed on stove with two squares Baker's chocolate, one and a half cups of flour, two small teaspoons baking powder. Cream butter and sugar, then stir in eggs well. After cooling add coffee and chocolate, then last the flour and baking powder. Bake in not too hot oven. Ice with chocolate or white icing.

Date Custard.

Line a deep pie tin with a good paste; into this put one pound of dates, cut into small pieces, then separate two eggs; into the yolks add one and one-half cups of milk and one-half cup of sugar, pinch of salt and a little nutmeg; pour over the dates and bake 20 or 25 minutes; beat the whites of the eggs until stiff; add two tablespoons of granulated sugar; pour over the custard and set in the oven to brown.

Sardine Sandwiches.

Take one can of sardines put up in oil, mix well with fork, adding enough catsup to make bright red. Mix thoroughly and spread on thin buttered slices of bread. The mixture provides enough for one loaf of bread.

Pie Crust.

To make pie crust light, flaky and digestible, wet it up with buttermilk, into which a little soda has been stirred. You can use less lard and still have nice, rich crust which is appetizing.

WANTS VINDICATION

A Remarkable Proxy Sent to Union Pacific Stockholders.

New York, Sept. 7.—Union Pacific stockholders expressed great surprise today at the form of proxy which E. H. Harriman had sent out for the annual meeting of the company, to be held in Salt Lake City, Sept. 8. The usual form of proxy is short, and simply gives the power to the assignee to vote so many shares of stock.

Mr. Harriman asks for authority not only to vote for directors, but to vote for any resolution that may come before the meeting, ratifying and approving all of the acts of the board of directors since the last annual meeting.

Wall street construes this to mean that Mr. Harriman asks his stockholders to approve all of his purchases of stock in other corporations and his other acts which were brought out at the interstate commerce investigation.

Wall street men say this form of proxy is one of the most remarkable that has ever been sent out in the financial district.

Big Tim Lifted the Lid.

Seven words spoken by Timothy D. (Big Tim) Sullivan in the assembly at Albany killed a bill for the passage of which the ways had been well greased.

One of Sullivan's colleagues who had opposed the bill at previous sessions, but was now supporting it, was explaining his change of attitude. "In previous years," he declared, "I was unable to support this measure because the slimy trail of the lobby was on it. These worms of the corridor were offering stocks and bonds for votes for the bill. This year, I thank God, the bill is in new hands, and no one charges that stocks and bonds are being distributed to effect its passage."

"No, Mr. Speaker," "Big Tim" interjected, "this year it's cash." The bill didn't pass.—Albany Journal.

Wed by Rev. Caskey.

James P. Higgins and Miss Lulu May Scott, whose wedding was anticipated in Friday's Democrat-Sentinel, were married by Rev. J. P. Caskey, pastor of the Southern Methodist church, at his residence at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon. The only attendants were the parents of the bride.

Mr. Gibbons Some Better.

Information from Boonville Saturday was that Frank Gibbons' father, who is ill with stomach trouble at his home at Boonville, was somewhat improved. Mr. Gibbons went there last night to be at his father's bedside.

Case Continued Indefinitely.

Owing to the illness of the prosecuting witness, Lelia Reynolds, the case of Peter Holbert, charged with disturbing the peace, was continued indefinitely by Judge Rickman Saturday.

Hill's Business College.

Our fall opening on September 24 was in many ways a surprise, even though we knew from our correspondence that a large number of students were to enter on this date. In fact, every Monday during September and October, students will enter school. Many of these will not have to begin their work at the beginning, as they have taken advantage of our special proposition, by which they are studying at home, receiving our instruction by mail.

This mail course free proposition is still in effect and anyone who will arrange for their scholarship is entitled to such free instruction until they are able to enter school.

This proposition is equivalent to a reduction of from $15 to $30 from the present low price of our scholarships. Any ambitious young person who will study at odd moments at home will be able to finish their course in from four weeks to two months less than the average time, which means a saving in board, room and incidental expenses for that period.

Mr. Ernest Masterson, a graduate of our commercial department, has just left for Kansas City to accept a good position.

Miss Grace Roark has accepted a position as bookkeeper and stenographer for the F. F. Combs real estate and insurance company of Sedalia. She takes the place of Miss Lulu Newkirk, who leaves for Kansas City to accept another position at a better salary.

We have just received a letter from Mr. George B. Ellis, secretary of the state board of agriculture, for another stenographer. This makes three of our students in this important office.

Mr. Bruce McArtor, of Lamotte, Mo., has just gone to Kansas City to accept a good position. He has just graduated from our commercial department.

Miss Josephine Westendick, whose brother is home on a visit from Kansas City, leaves us to return with him to accept a position with the same company with which he is employed.

The demand for stenographers and bookkeepers, especially stenographers, is much in excess of our ability to supply. We will be in better shape than ever to furnish our business friends with competent help, as the number of students enrolling this year is much in excess of any previous year.

The state fair special rates will remain in effect until October 10, 1907, after which date our scholarship will sell at catalogue prices. Until that date, $50 will purchase our regular $60 life scholarship in either the shorthand or commercial department, and $75 will purchase our regular $90 life scholarship in both departments. By arranging for your scholarship now you will be entitled to instruction by mail, without extra expense, until you are able to enter school. It will pay you to attend to his matter at once. Anyone who has not received a copy of our beautiful catalogue may have a copy free by writing for it.

CHARGED WITH BIGAMY

Was Confronted by Two Alleged Wives in Court.

Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 7.—Two women claiming him as their lawful husband confronted D. H. Moore, alias C. H. Leslie, when he was placed on trial before Judge Josiah Cohen in the criminal court here. Rose Whorley and Beatrice Diehl were his accusers. The former's statements on the witness stand were objected to by the latter, who denounced her as a liar.

Judge Cohen told the state woman she would have to control her feelings or he would send her to jail. The defense claims that Moore never used but the one name and was never married but once and then to Beatrice Diehl.

This was supported by the record from the Youngstown, Ohio, license office and by numerous witnesses. No record of the other woman's marriage was admitted in evidence.

Moore is a prosperous restaurant man at Braddock.

DEATH OF PATRICK SLANE

Father of One of Sedalia's Citizens Passed Away Friday Night.

Patrick Slane, father of M. T. Slane, of this city, died of pneumonia at his home at Belleville, Ill., Friday night. The remains will be brought here today and funeral services will be conducted by Rev. Fr. Neiberg at Sacred Heart church at 2:30 o'clock after which interment will be made in the Catholic cemetery.

Besides the son in this city, deceased leaves two other sons, Frank Slane, of St. Louis, and John Slane, of San Antonio, Texas.

Mr. Slane visited his father last Thursday and on leaving the next day left him much improved. Soon after his departure a relapse came and death ensued.

LOCALS COCAINE FIENDS

It Is Said There Are a Number of Them in Sedalia.

To the Democrat-Sentinel.

Sedalia has a number of so-called "coke" fiends, mostly negroes, who use the drug, cocaine.

The laws of Missouri prohibit any druggist from selling cocaine without a prescription, and these must have definite quantities, also directions.

A certain physician writes numerous cocaine prescriptions for the fiends, and the druggists of Sedalia are worried, to say the least.

We want this stopped and will put a stop to it if we must appeal to the state board of medicine and the prosecuting attorney of Pettis county to have the license of the doctors and the druggists who sell to fiends revoked.—A Druggist.

she left, saying she would get the money and repay me. She wanted to go to Tipton, because she said she could get her money easily through one of the three banks. I am satisfied she had no money, and that this was one of her delusions. She said her money was in the First National bank of St. Louis, and I did not know at the time that there was no such bank.

Not Afraid of Men.

"I am satisfied Nettie Snyder was an assumed name. I think it was her intention to stay in the Gilroy school house until she starved herself to death. When I went to remove her to my home I tried to frighten her by saying that bad men passed through the neighborhood and might harm her. She gave me to understand that she was not afraid of any man. She had a temper that asserted itself frequently.

"I notified Prosecuting Attorney Johnson, of Cooper county and the county judges that the woman was helpless on my hands and that I could not afford to keep her. They would do nothing. When she recovered her health I told her I could not keep her any longer, but would send her where she wanted to go. She said she wanted to go to a hotel in Tipton, and I took her there. I happened to be in Tipton four days later, and made some inquiries about her, but never saw her."

The woman had $1.35 when she left Seal's home. She got this money by selling several rings and stick pins.

Inquiries concerning the woman have been made in Syracuse, but, so far as is known, she was never seen there.

The clothes in the imitation leather suit case the woman carried are almost rotten. The clothes she wore in death are better preserved. She was clad in a white flannel waist, trimmed with strips of black velvet running to points at the buttonholes. There was also a black rosette worked into the waist. The black skirt was of natty material. She wore a black satin underskirt, and carpet slippers. She left her shoes at Seal's home because her feet had not regained their normal size.

SHADE FOR THE CANDLE.

Pretty and Novel Affair by No Means Hard to Make.

So many persons find the light from a candle or lamp trying on the eyes that they always insist on shades of some sort.

A pretty and novel affair for a candle may be made of strong wire bent into a rectangular shape, six inches wide at the bottom, with the inner side 12 inches tall and the outer seven and one half. This will give a decided slope to each top.

Make two of these frames and cover them neatly with silk muslin of a very thin liberty silk.

This cover may then be painted or it can be studded in conventional design in sequins. Tie the backs together with bows of narrow ribbon for hinges, and around the top and two shorter sides sew a box-plating of narrow lace.

The candle is, of course, placed between the two leaves when they are opened wide. Extreme care must be taken to observe this precaution, as a fire might easily result from such inflammable materials in close proximity to flame.

KEEPING SHOES IN ORDER.

Ways by Which Best Results Can Be Obtained.

White buckskin should be cleaned with the best pipe clay, which must be dampened before using.

Patent leather shoes should first be wiped dry with a soft cloth before placing them on the shoe tree, then wiped with a soft cloth dipped in warm soapy water.

A little vaseline should be applied from time to time, especially after a wetting. The shine may be restored by rubbing with a piece of soft silk or black velvet.

Leather nowadays is rendered independent of the ill effect of dampness. Shoes can, therefore, generally be washed with tepid water when soiled, a piece of soft linen being dampened and applied all over the shoe.

Spanish Pigs' Feet.

Take eight clean, fresh "trotters," cut each into four pieces; then boil until nearly done. Take the pigs' feet out and lay to one side. Boil in the liquid one pint of tomatoes and one pound of parboiled tripe, cut fine; one small garlic, mashed fine; six potatoes sliced diamond shape, half cupful of rice, half a cupful of Indian curry. When almost done put the pigs' feet back, taking care that they are well covered with the liquid, and let it all boil until the pigs' feet are done. Be sure not to let the pigs' feet fall apart or have the sauce too thin. This is a favorite Spanish recipe.

Wants Divorce and Alimony.

Mrs. Emma C. Hays, wife of George Hays, a farmer of Heath's Creek, sued her husband for divorce Saturday, alleging general indignities.

They were married in May, 1898, and lived together until August 31, 1907.

Plaintiff also asks for $150 attorney fees and $50 a month temporary alimony. R. A. Higdon is plaintiff's attorney.

TODAY'S MARKET REPORTS

Latest Wire Quotations on Grain, Live Stock and Local Products.

The Grain Quotations.

The following quotations are furnished the Democrat-Sentinel at 3 p. m. each day by B. C. Christopher & Co., grain merchants, Board of Trade building, Kansas City, Mo.:

Wheat continued to advance this morning, following a slight setback just after the opening of the market. December wheat in Chicago started out unchanged to 1/4c higher at $1.00 1/2 to $1.00 3/4, receded to $1.00 1/4, then shot up to $1.01 1/4 to $1.01 1/2. In the last few minutes there was a setback, and the close, $1.01 1/4 @ 1.01 1/2, showed 3/4c net gain for the day.

Minneapolis December wheat sold down 1/4c to $1.04 1/2 @ $1.05, then rose to $1.07 and closed at $1.06 1/4, up 1c for the day.

Kansas City December wheat did not sell below the previous day's closing price, 93 1/2c, at the outset and remained between that and 93 3/4c for a time, then rose quickly to 95 1/4c, and the close, 94 3/4 @ 94 1/2c, showed 3/4c net gain.

The strength of the market was due largely to fears that frosts may occur in the Canadian Northwest Sunday. The forecast for the United States was generally fair and cooler. There were reports of large export business at Winnipeg.

Live Stock Quotations.

The following quotations are furnished the Democrat-Sentinel at 3 p. m. each day by Pinnell-McMullen Live Stock Commission Co., stock yards, Kansas City, Mo.:

Receipts of cattle were 1,096. Several loads were received on through billing. Few sales were made. The market was quoted nominally steady.

Receipts of hogs in Kansas City today were 1,500; in Chicago, 8,000; at the five western markets, 21,000. Trading was active at 5 to 10 cents higher prices. Receipts were unusually small. The top was $6.30, and bulk of sales $6.10 to $6.25.

OLD RAILROAD MAN DEAD

E. R. Horton Helped Build the Hannibal & St. Joseph Line.

St. Joseph, Mo., Sept. 7.—E. R. Horton, 78 years old, died here today of apoplexy. He came to St. Joseph in 1860 from Cleveland, O., as agent for the Blue line fast freight and witnessed the starting of the pony express. He assisted in building the old Hannibal & St. Joseph railroad to the Missouri river. Many years ago he was injured in a runaway accident and had since been invalid.

BABY FELL INTO THE SUDS

A Wichita Child Probably Will Die as a Result.

Wichita, Kas., Sept. 7.—The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Burson fell into a wash tub yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Burson had left the tub on the kitchen floor. The child crawled into the tub while playing.

The doctor in charge says the child will die, as it inhaled the soap suds.

Preparing Vegetables.

In preparing root vegetables for cooking all traces of earth should be removed. Those belonging to the cabbage family should be soaked for half an hour or more in cold water, head downwards, in order to remove any insects that may be concealed within. Usually vegetables are cooked in boiling, salted water; salt is used for two reasons. First, for the savor, to which most people have become accustomed, and in the case of green vegetables like peas, beans, Brussels sprouts, and spinach, in order to retain and intensify the green color.

Good Hints for "Cuts of Meat."

The so-called inferior cuts of meat are taken from those portions of the animal which are most constantly in motion during life, hence they are tough and stout of fiber. So far as nutrition goes, however, they are to be preferred to the very tender portions (such as beef tenderloin), which contain a small percentage of body-making material. It is necessary to give them an entirely different treatment to make them palatable when served. Long cooking at a somewhat low heat is needed to give tenderness and impart flavor.

Lemon Sugar.

Place the grated yellow peel from lemons in a wide mouthed bottle and cover thickly with granulated sugar. Keep the bottle tightly corked. The sugar becomes saturated with the oil from the peel and imparts a delicious flavor. Still another way is to rub lumps of sugar over the lemon rind until the oil cells are broken and the oil absorbed by the sugar. Place the lumps of sugar in an airtight jar and when ready to use dissolve some of the sugar in whatever it is desired to flavor.

Cherry Salad.

Remove the stones from the cherries and fill the cavities with chopped nut meats. Arrange on a bed of lettuce leaves and select a few handsome cherries from which the stems have not been removed, and use them as a garnish. Serve with the boiled dressing without adding cream, or with a French dressing.

ALL OF THE NEW THINGS ARE NOT TO WEAR, OR TO LOOK AT—SOME OF THEM ARE TO EAT.

News of the National Capital

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE

Special to the Democrat-Sentinel.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 5.—Vacation season is coming to a close, as is indicated by the announcement of the president's home coming plans. It had been thought that Washington was going to see nothing more of the chief magistrate until the middle of October. But this plan has been changed. He is coming back to Washington before his southern trip. He will come here on Sept. 25, and be here a few days, getting up some pressing work at the executive office. Then he is going to start west on the 29th, arriving in Canton for the McKinley monument ceremonies. From there he will go to Keokuk, where he will meet the inland waterways commission, and with them he will go down the Mississippi. This will be a long trip. He will touch at St. Louis, Cairo, Memphis, Vicksburg and Nashville. It had not been intended to extend the trip so far, but there were pressing invitations to take in Vicksburg and Nashville, so it was done. There will be some speeches made after leaving Canton, and it will be an interesting trip for that reason, if for no other. The return will be made to Washington Oct. 8 or 9.

The war-hungry, and there are a good many of them in every country, have been pricking up their ears and licking their lips over the report that there was immediate or almost immediate danger of a clash with Japan. The Japs, according to report, had actually taken possession of one of the Philippines, and this was the beginning of a series of aggressions that was to lead to hostilities.

The possession seized was Patras Island, and as soon as the navy department heard of it there was a ransacking of Atlases to see just where and how much we had been despoiled. It took some time to find out, as Patras Island is not to be found except on some very large hydrographic office charts. It proved, however, to be a real island, about sixty miles outside of the jurisdiction of the United States, and almost 200 miles from the nearest one of the Philippines. It is a little spot of sand in the track of vessels from Hong Kong to Manila. It is almost a mile long, nearly half a mile wide, and the top elevation is 30 feet above sea level. There is no water on it, nor anything else so far as has been discovered, but it is used as a haven for Chinese fishing junks and probably Chinese pirates also. If Japan wants it there is no apparent reason why she should not take it. War with the mikado's kingdom may come some time, but Patras Island is hardly the beginning of an excuse.

Decidedly more important than the occupation of Patras Island is the ravaging of the Pacific coast of Alaska by the Japanese seal poachers. There are three revenue cutters on duty in the north Pacific, the Perry, the McCollough and the Manning, but all of them happen not to be in the Behring sea, and the poachers, knowing this, are killing seal on the south coast of Alaska with impunity.

ANSWER WAS A STINGER.

Cruel Rejoinder to Question of Impassioned Woman.

A Detroit woman said of the late Gen. Russell A. Alger: "In company with a half dozen other women—a committee, in fact—I once waited on Gen. Alger to try and interest him in woman suffrage. He was interested. He admitted the truth of many of our arguments. But in the matter of supporting us he would not go as far as we wanted him to go. One of our ladies got, I am afraid, a little over-excited. In her address to the general she imputed to woman more virtues than any merely human creature could possess. At the height of her eloquence Gen. Alger, chuckling, interrupted her. He said he had once attended a woman suffrage meeting where the lady lecturer on the platform had boasted about woman as this lady was doing. The lecturer, he said, ended a stirring climax with the question 'Where would man be if it had not been for woman?' She looked around the crowded hall. The silence was intense. She raised her hand and cried again impressively: 'I repeat, where would man be if it had not been for woman?' Then a coarse voice from the rear replied: 'In Paradise, me'am.'"

They have even become so bold as to make descents on some of the unprotected coast towns, ravaging them much as the Vikings used to do the unprotected coasts of Britain. The attitude of the Japanese government is such as to encourage the poachers, and there is every prospect that there will be another clash, such as resulted in five of the Japs being killed on the island of St. Paul about a year ago.

With these continued small provocations it is little wonder that the people of the Pacific coast are looking forward with enthusiasm and interest to the coming of the battleship squadron. Representative McCreary, who is now the ranking member of the house committee on foreign affairs, was talking of the movement of this squadron this week. He said he was thoroughly in favor of the cruise. It was not only that the appearance of this powerful squadron in the Pacific would do much to increase American prestige there, but the cost of the expedition would not be much greater than keeping the ships in commission on this side of the continent. The chief added expense will be for coal, but the added experience that both officers and men will get on the cruise will far outweigh the expense.

In connection with the coming cruise, one of the most remarkable baseless stories that has ever been set afloat recently is that crediting the president with having made an arrangement with Germany to protect the Atlantic coast while the battleship squadron is away. The tale goes that the president and the kaiser have reached an understanding whereby the German navy is to keep a fatherly eye upon the unprotected Atlantic coast while the American fleet is in the Pacific. In the first place it is entirely improbable that the kaiser would consent to any such arrangement. In the second place, it would be a good deal like hiring a wolf to watch sheep to invite such protection, and, finally, the president would have no authority to enter into any such agreement with a foreign power without the consent of congress, which, of course, never would be granted.

It may be as well for any nervous citizen to remember that there is no need to worry over the Atlantic coast, even if all the battleships and cruisers in the navy were absent or sunk. The system of coast artillery has been developed in recent years so that any American harbor would be adequately protected from invasion by a foreign fleet. Every commercial harbor on the coast, too, has been effectively mapped and mined, and there are enough of the old type of monitors left to make a respectable showing as harbor defenders. The monitor is an obsolete type as a sea-going vessel, but in smooth water they are equal to floating forts, and could be relied on to give a good account of themselves if they were ever called into action, which is extremely improbable.

IS A RELIC OF THE PAST.

Blind Veteran of the Palmy Days of the Circus.

It is not often that one may have his dinner cooked by a woman who can at the same time give reminiscences of the stage dating back for half a century. She who possesses this remarkable memory is the proprietor of an inn of odd construction, which is not far from Greenwood Lake, in New Jersey. She has been identified with practically every phase, not only of the stage, but of the circus. She is now blind, but her mind is so filled with images of the past that she is never depressed. She remembers P. T. Barnum, James A. Bailey and all the old-time kings of the tented field, for in her younger days she was a performer in the ring. The palmy days of minstrelsy she can talk about for the hour, recalling anecdotes of Wambold and Backus and old Billy Emerson. Then by a quick transition she will go to the drama and talk entertainingly of Florence and Jefferson and the elder Sothorn. In the meantime she is busy about the details of the dinner and is carrying on the complicated operations as easily as though her right was as keen and strong as it was in the days of her triumphs of ring and stage.

Occasional headache, belching, bad taste in the mouth, lack of appetite and slight nervousness are symptoms of indigestion, which, when allowed to go uncorrected, will develop into a case of dyspepsia that will take a long time to get rid of. Don't neglect your stomach. At the first indication of trouble take something that will help it along in its work of digesting the food you eat. Kodol for indigestion and dyspepsia will do this. Kodol will make your food do you good and will enable you to enjoy what you eat. Sold by Arlington pharmacy.

BURTON WILL RUN

To Defeat Tom Johnson Cleveland Congressman Nominated.

Cleveland, O., Sept. 7.—Congressman Theodore E. Burton, chairman of the house committee on rivers and harbors, was today nominated by acclamation for mayor of Cleveland at the republican city convention. Mr. Burton will run against Tom Johnson, who is sure to be renominated by the democrats.

When Mr. Burton agreed to accept the nomination he made these statements:

"I will accept the nomination for mayor of Cleveland provided assurance is given:

"1. That the platform of the party and those who are to be its candidates will clearly show the absence of any alliance or affiliation with any public service corporation, street railway or other, and that the platform of the relation of the municipality to these companies can, under my leadership, be settled by the officials elected with supreme regard for the interests of the people.

"2. That the delegates in the convention next Saturday will co-operate with me in nominating a good representative ticket. In this connection, I desire to express myself with reference to the caucuses next Thursday. There is an unusual degree of competition in many wards for the selection of councilmen and delegates. I sincerely hope that the respective contests will be conducted with decorum, and with no semblance anywhere of disorder or fraud."

Going to File on Land.

Tom T. Grimsbury, a writer on the Pueblo, Colo., Chieftain, and one of the best newspaper reporters that ever left Sedalia, has arranged to file on 320 acres of land in the Centennial state this week. Whether he will raise Rocky Ford melons or pumpkins he failed to state in a letter to a friend here.

Lamb and Green Peas Salad.

What to Eat gives us a picture and recipe of lamb and green peas salad that looks and sounds very attractive and not difficult.

"Materials—One pint green peas (cooked), half a cup of boiling water, one pint cooking lamb cut in cubes, three tablespoons of sugar, half a cup of celery cut in cubes, five tablespoons of vinegar, one bunch (two dozen sprigs) mint, a quarter of a teaspoon of red pepper, half teaspoon of salt, one-half cup strong stock, two tablespoons of granulated gelatine, mayonnaise, lettuce leaves.

Proper Way to Fold Coat.

A useful thing for wives to know when they are packing up for the summer holiday is how to fold a man's coat. There is a knack in it, that it will add domestic happiness for her to master. Lay the coat out perfectly flat, right side up. Spread the sleeves out smoothly, then fold them back to the elbow until the bottoms of the cuffs are even with the collar. Fold the revers back, and double the coat over, folding it on the center seam. Smooth out all wrinkles and lay it on a level surface in the trunk.

Preserved Rhubarb.

Peel and cut some fresh rhubarb in small pieces and weigh them; allow for every pound of rhubarb three-fourths of a pound of sugar; place the rhubarb in a kettle over the fire, adding no water; cook till reduced to half; place the sugar in another kettle over the fire, adding enough water to moisten sugar, and boil to a ball; then add the rhubarb; stir and cook five minutes and remove and fill in jars.

French Pudding.

Whites of six eggs, three-fourths cup prunes cooked and chopped fine, ten cents' worth English walnuts, cup sugar; put sugar through sieve three or four times; cup nuts and prunes, beat egg, stir together in bowl; put in pan and bake in slow oven for 40 minutes.

Paraffin as a Cleaner.

Shabby black bedsteads will not only be cleaned, but greatly improved in appearance, if rubbed over with a cloth dipped in paraffin.

TO MEND SILK STOCKINGS.

Method Only Requires a Little Care and Patience.

Silk stockings are among the expensive luxuries of a girl's wardrobe. The first cost is considerable, and they do not stand wear.

When the first stitch breaks their beauty is much impaired, if not actually destroyed. That one tiny break rapidly runs down the length of the stocking, and if not quickly mended the open strip speedily widens and the case is hopeless.

The usual way of mending is to sew the raveled edges together with over-and-over stitch, says Harper's Bazar. This may stop further raveling, but even with the greatest care there will be a fuzzy seam very conspicuous on the plain part of the stocking, and most unsightly on any part.

A better way, which only requires patience, is to pick up the stitches and crochet the edges together with a fine needle and fine silk of the same color.

The seam then will never be noticed by anyone but the wearer.

Smothered Eggs.

Poach in well salted water the requisite number of eggs until quite firm or hard. Arrange on fancy platter and pour over eggs the following dressing: One cup sweet milk, one-third cup butter, one-third cup vinegar, two eggs, well beaten, with one tablespoon corn starch; one-third spoon pepper, and same of celery salt, with salt to taste. Boil all until a thick gravy, and pour over. Eat cold or warm. Garnish with parsley.

Corn Relish.

One gallon fresh corn, one-half gallon cabbage, cut fine; six green peppers, six red peppers, six yellow peppers, cut these up fine; mix with corn and cabbage and add one tablespoon of mustard, two tablespoons mustard seed; cover all with white wine vinegar; sugar and salt to taste; let simmer for two hours. Can while hot.

Spool Holders.

A simple little device for holding the spool when crocheting is a wire hair pin with the ends bent in at right angles a quarter of an inch above each end. Snap the ends into a hole in a spool or into a ball; hook the head of the pin over the button on the waist and run no more risk of soiling thread or silk from dropping.

Cooked Lettuce.

Cook lettuce 20 minutes in boiling water, drain and add dressing; serve hot, and garnish with hard boiled egg. Dressing for lettuce: One-half cup vinegar, one-half cup boiling water, one-half teaspoon salt, one tablespoon of sugar, two hard boiled eggs, chopped fine. Let dressing come to a boil and pour over lettuce.

Rhubarb Jelly.

Wash and cook rhubarb until tender, adding enough water to keep from burning. Strain through cheese cloth; add one cup of sugar to every cup of juice; add the juice of one lemon to every quart; boil 20 minutes.

Old Racing Boat in Trade.

About a month ago there came into New York with a cargo of herring from Labrador the old cup racer Lavonia, which was the challenger in 171 against the schooner Columbia. The old cup boat is now plying between Boston and Labrador and Newfoundland ports, and she appears as rakish looking as of old, but shows the marks of more than 35 years' battling with the seas. She is still good for many years and her skipper takes great pride in her.

The Trade of New York.

Of imports this harbor has long secured the lion's share, and that share is not materially diminishing. In 1897 imports here were valued at $481,000,000. In 1907 they had reached a valuation of $858,000,000. New York's gain was 79 per cent.; the gain of the country at large was about 90 per cent. The export and import business of this customs district last year was $1,474,000,000, nearly half of that of the entire country.—New York Tribune.

PRIEST WAS FOUND DEAD

The Reverend Father Fogarty, of Kansas City, Mo.

The Rev. Fr. Fogarty, a Catholic priest of Kansas City, was found dead about 9 o'clock this morning in his room at John S. Prather's residence on Marietta street, says the Excelsior Springs Call of Friday. He was 68 years of age and had come here the last of June on account of failing health.

Father Fogarty was born in Ireland and came to this country when 20 years old. He studied for the priesthood in New York and was later sent to the missionary field in Missouri and Kansas. He was retired five-teen years ago and has been in poor health for a long time. He made his home in Kansas City, but spent much of his time at Excelsior Springs.

MEETING OF PRINCIPALS

All of the Schools Will Open Tomorrow Except Pacific Heights.

A meeting of the principals of the city schools was held Saturday and all of the arrangements completed for the opening of ten of the eleven schools on Monday.

Pacific Heights school, in the eastern suburbs, where Misses Norton and McGinley are to teach, will not be ready to open until the latter part of the week.

Supt. G. V. Buchanan was able to attend the principals' meeting Saturday, and his legion of friends will be glad to know that he is to enter upon his duties tomorrow, after several weeks' illness.

MRS. LUCAS ASKS DIVORCE

Husband, A. H. Lucas, is a Locomotive Fireman.

Mrs. Lena Lucas, wife of a locomotive fireman, through Attorney Higdon, sued her husband, A. H. Lucas, for divorce here Saturday, alleging general indignities; also, that he had been married before and did not inform her of the marriage and subsequent divorce.

They were married in Missouri on January 30, 1904, and lived together until March 1, 1906.

Plaintiff also asks for $75 attorney fees and $35 monthly alimony for the present.

ASSAULTED IN HIS OFFICE

Trainmaster's Clerk Killed by a Drink-Crazed Brakeman.

Little Rock, Ark., Sept. 7.—J. G.
Cromwell, clerk for the Iron Mountain trainmaster, was assaulted in the latter's office in the Union station here Friday afternoon by Brakeman N. C. Suggs, of that road, who saying to a crowd that he had bullets left for the police and himself, fled, followed by a crowd, to Water and Cross streets, where he killed himself, fearing capture.

At the double inquest held last night it developed that Suggs had been drinking heavily for two weeks.
He came here two months ago. He was formerly a conductor for the Iron Mountain.

BEAT HIS FATHER TO DEATH

Insane Alabama Boy Almost Killed His Sister Also.

Gadsden, Ala., Sept. 7.—A. C. Ack-erie, an old resident of Marshall county, was killed yesterday by his demented son, who was supposed to be harmless.

The boy became insane and tried to kill the entire family. He attacked his sister first and almost killed her.
After chasing the rest of the family from the house he locked his infirm father in a room and clubbed him to death.

Neighbors broke down the door and overpowered the madman. It required five men to subdue him.

Special Delivery Increase.

During the month of August, the special delivery letter carrier at the postoffice delivered 440 special delivery letters, while the total number delivered during the month of August in 1905 was 313.

SHE SWALLOWED POISON

"I Ate All of That Candy, Mamma," Said Little Ohio To.

Marietta, O., Sept. 7.—"Mamma, I ate all of that candy," lisped 4-year-old Winnie Borne, of Charles street, last evening, and in a few minutes she sank into a stupor, dying shortly afterward. The child had eaten enough morphine tablets to kill two men.

Playing about the house, she came upon a box of the drug secreted in a sewing machine drawer, and, childlike, ate it. The mother summoned a doctor, but he arrived too late to save the child.

Winnie was a bright eyed, golden haired child, the favorite of the neighborhood. She was the daughter of Jesse Borne, who worked in a neighboring mill.

A THOUSAND MASSES

For Souls in Purgatory Paid for by a Priest.

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 7.—One thousand masses to be said for souls in purgatory was one of the chief provisions of the will of Fr. Patrick M.
Flannigan, the aged pastor of St.
Anne's Roman Catholic church, whose body was taken to Marquette, Mich., for burial last Monday. The priest also provided for 100 masses to be said for the repose of his own soul.

The instrument was filed in the probate court today. The priest gave away thousands of dollars while he lived. In the will he disposed of $12-500, most of which he divided among his brothers, sister and a number of Chicago Catholic hospitals and asylums.

"BUSINESS" CLUB RAIDED

Wichita Officers Found Beer and Other Barred Delicacies.

Wichita, Kas., Sept. 7.—The Business Men's league was raided by the police here yesterday, and the loccwhere members kept intoxicating liquor, was ordered closed. Several cases of beer and a quantity of whisky and wine were found.

This league was recently organized.
Members had private closets, where they kept beverages if they chose.
Following the order of Mayor Graham to have the place closed, Harry Lockwood, secretary of the organization, is said to have resigned.

Postponed Trip

C. H. Heynen, the well known monument dealer, went to the depot yesterday, but concluded not to take that northern trip, and he will be found at his works as usual this next week giving big bargains in small as well as large monuments.

INJURED IN WRECK
IN IOWA

COACH, CAB AND CABOOSE ITEMS

Matters of Interest Picked Up From Various Sources for the Benefit of Democrat-Sentinel Readers.

Eleven persons were killed and seven or more injured Friday when a northbound Rock Island passenger train left the rails north of Omaha and crashed into a southbound freight train standing on a siding.

The injured were taken to Waterloo and placed in the Presbyterian hospital.

All of the dead and injured were in the smoking car, which was immediately behind the baggage and mail cars. The smoking car was completely demolished. The dead and injured were strewn about among the wreckage.

The northbound express was ten minutes late at Norris Siding, a small station three miles north of Cedar Falls, Ia., and there the freight train was awaiting the express, which came along at terrific speed in an effort to make up lost time.

Just as the engine of the passenger was about to pass the freight engine, the trucks of the train jumped the track, and the engine crashed into the engine of the freight, wrecking both engines, and telescoping the baggage and mail cars, and demolishing the smoking car.

The passengers in the two day coaches following the smoker escaped with only a violent shaking up.

Rescuers were immediately at hand to care for the injured and take the dead from among the wreckage. Sitting in the middle of the wreckage was Dr. Charles J. O'Keefe, who, although badly injured, little realized how seriously he was hurt.

Abandoned the Junction

After Monday the once prosperous city of Franklin Junction will be no more. The Katy railroad roundhouse and shops will be moved to Mokane.
The station and dispatcher's offices are already at New Franklin, and all that will remain at the old Junction will be the company ice house and a few store buildings and residences.

The company has posted the new schedule of train service to take effect on the north end Sunday at noon.

WORKING FOR CARNIVAL

Apache Tribe Will Endeavor to Give First-Class Show.

The arrangements committee of Apache tribe No. 55, I. O. R. M., is working hard to arrange the preliminary work for the carnival to be given in this city on October 7 to 12, inclusive, and from present indications it will be heartily enjoyed by every person who attends the show.
Parker's Fairland Amusement Co., consisting of nine well worth seeing paid attractions, and three free attractions, will constitute the carnival fun. The show plays at Marysville, Kas., next week, but it is not known where it comes from here.

The Red Men have not yet decided on the exact location of the show grounds, but due announcement of that will be made later.

Apache tribe is working hard to make the affair a success and if untiring efforts and faithful, honest work count for anything the success of the carnival is already assured.

NELSON-TEMPLE NUPTIALS

Bridal Couple Departed Saturday for a Visit in the East.

William A. Nelson, a dry goods merchant of Texarkana, Texas, and Mrs. Irene Temple Potter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Temple, were very quietly married by Rev. A. D. Johnston, of Bunce, at the home of the bride's parents, 200 East Seventh street, at 11 o'clock Saturday morning.

Only a few relatives of the bride attended. A wedding dinner was served after the ceremony, and the bridal couple left over the Missouri Pacific at noon for a month's visit at Boston, New York city, Washington, D. C., and other eastern cities, and will then go to Texarkana to reside.

Knowledge of the approaching nuptials came to the Democrat-Sentinel Friday, and a reporter for this paper called at the Temple home to glean the details, but they were withheld, and no mention was made of the matter.

REV. CRUTCHER "CALLED"

Judge Told Former Moberly Divine Where to Head in.

Just as the county court was adjourning Tuesday afternoon J. N. Crutcher, a member of the state board of charities and correction, appeared in the clerk's office, says the Chillicothe Tribune.

He was "loaded" with a roast for the court. He began by criticizing the system of maintaining the pauper insane at the infirmary and would probably have talked the judges out of their supper had not Presiding Judge Boehmer stopped him.

Mr. Crutcher tried to impress upon the court that he occupied a more important official position than any of them. Judge Boehmer told him he didn't care if he were a king, that the court had rights which he was bound to respect. Hot words followed between Judge Boehmer and Mr. Crutcher, the latter finally picking up his hat and leaving the court room in great indignation.

Gun Club Elects Officers.

The Sedalia Gun club Friday afternoon elected a permanent organization and elected the following officers:

President—Fred Hoffman
Vice president—J. B. Brown.
Secretary—Joseph Parads.
Treasurer—T. H. Johnson.
Field captain—E. M. Thatcher.

In the medal shoot Jesse Neff and George McClure tied on the high score and in the shoot-off Neff won, with a score of 21 out of a possible 25. Monte Thatcher and Frank Falkner tied for second place and Falkner won on the shoot-off, with a score of 20 out of a possible 25.

Bride and Groom Passed East.

Mr. and Mrs. Duran, the latter formerly Miss Gussie McConnell, of

THE CHECK WAS "N. G."

It Was Passed at Bondi Bros. Store on Saturday.

A stranger giving his name as C. L. Mitchell, passed a worthless check on Bondi Bros. during the noon hour Saturday. The stranger entered the store and made a purchase amounting to $4.04. He tendered a check on the Citizens' National bank in payment. As soon as he left a lady clerk at the store telephoned the bank to ascertain if the check was good, but it was pronounced worthless.

The crook had escaped and the police were notified.

LOCAL OPTION UP IN VERNON

Special Election to Be Held in County October 10.

Nevada, Mo., Sept. 7.—A petition asking for a special election in Vernon county outside of Nevada to vote on local option was filed with the county court Friday.

The court sets October 10 as the day for holding the election.

Local option advocates say they will ask for a "dry" Nevada if the issue carries in the county.

The Baldwin-Knight Nuptials.

Cards have been issued announcing that Mr. Wareham Baldwin and Miss Josephine Knight will be married at 8 o'clock Saturday evening, September 21, by the Rev. Dudley M. Claggett, at the Broadway Presbyterian church. A reception at the Knight home, 709 West Fifth street, will follow. The bridal couple will spend their honeymoon in Detroit.

The Sans Gene Club.

The ladies of the Sans Gene club were entertained Friday afternoon by Mrs. H. D. Muir. The club prize, a cut glass perfume bottle, was won by Mrs. Fred Hoffman. Mrs. George H. Scruton won the guest prize, an antique brass vase. After the game Mrs. Muir served stuffed tomatoes, cheese straws, crackers, cheese balls and orange ice.

A BLACK CAT IS EMBLEM

THE SIXTEENTH ANNUAL MEETING OF THE FAMOUS HOO-HOO ORDER.

HOW IT CAME TO BE ORGANIZED

Men Who Sell Lumber Have Added 2,500 New Members the Past Year—Has Branches in Every State in Union

Special to the Democrat-Sentinel.

Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 6.—With the arrival in Atlantic City of the supreme snark of the universe, accompanied by the Bojum, Scrivenator, Jabberwock, Castocatian, Arcanoper, Gurdon and Senior and Junior Hoo-Hoo the Supreme Nine is assembled for the sixteenth annual meeting of the Concatenated Order of Hoo-Hoo, which will open here Monday. The men bearing these fear-inspiring names are in reality exceedingly prosperous-appearing business men, all being engaged in the manufacture or sale of lumber.

In addition to the officials, hundreds of other lumber men from all sections of the United States, Canada and Mexico are arriving for the annual session. The meeting will begin Monday morning with the annual assembly of the Osirian cloister, followed in the afternoon by the annual initiatory ceremony. The business session will be called to order by the snark or the universe, A. C. Ramsey, of Missouri, at nine minutes after 9 o'clock of the ninth month, the same being Monday.

The principal matter to be considered at the session is that of adhering more closely to the clause of the constitution governing eligibility to membership in the order. This provides that city manufacturers or dealers in lumber, owners of timber lands, newspaper publishers or editors, general railroad officials and manufacturers of sawmill machinery shall be admitted.

It is alleged that in several places, notably in Texas, a number of men wholly ineligible have been admitted by local vicegenerals. This will be made the subject of some vigorous comment by the snark of the universe, and methods by which to prevent a recurrence in the future will receive considerable attention at the meeting. It is alleged that a drastic example will be made by this Texas vice general.

The growth of the order during the last year exceeds all previous records, and the membership rolls now contain the names of nearly all lumbermen of North America. Nearly 2,500 men have been initiated during the last twelve months and concatenations have been held within practically every state and territory of the union, every province of Canada and every state of Mexico, as well as one at Shanghai, China. The latter was the first concatenation ever held outside the American continent. It will be followed shortly by a meeting of the order at Sydney, N. S. W.

Considerable interest is manifested in the election of officers, which includes all the members of the Supreme Nine. The eastern delegates are determined to capture the office of supreme snark of the universe, and have put forward John L. Alcock, the well-known hardwood lumber exporter, of Baltimore, for the office. Originally a western order, the Hoo-Hoo has now spread all over the east, and the members of this section will put up a formidable fight to elect their man. This is the first general meeting to be held in an eastern city, recent annual meetings having been held in Oklahoma City, Portland, Ore., and St. Louis.

The Concatenated Order of Hoo-Hoo, Supreme Scrivenator J. H. Baird, of Nashville, Tenn., editor of the official organ, is insistent that the name is Hoo-Hoo, both singular and plural, and not Hoo-Hoos, as it is usually written—had its origin in the little town of Gurdon, Ark., on January 21, 1892.

A train wreck detained a number of lumbermen, railroad officials and newspaper men in the little town for a day, and that day of leisure resulted in the inception based upon a community of business interests.

Among the original Hoo-Hoo in the little Arkansas lumber village were B. A. Johnson, now editor of the American Lumberman, Chicago;

William S. Mitchell, business manager of the Little Rock Democrat; William E. Barns, editor of the St. Louis Lumberman; George Kimball Smith, secretary of the Southern Lumbermen's association, and several others identified directly or indirectly with the lumber business.

It was decided that the official emblem of the order should be a black cat. Following out this idea, the meetings were later called concatenations, and, as a cat is supposed to have nine lives, so everything in Hoo-Hoo-dom runs by nines. There are nine supreme officers, the annual meeting always begins at nine minutes after nine on the ninth day of the ninth month of the year, and the initiation fee is $9.99. Furthermore, it is alleged that a cat-o-nine tails plays a prominent part in the initiation of new members.

The order has branches in every state of the union, Mexico and Canada, and its interests are looked after by vicegerent snarks, some states having as many as three of these officials. Nashville, Tenn. has been the official headquarters of the order for the last decade.

GREAT STEAMSHIP RACE

IT WAS INAUGURATED SATURDAY AFTERNOON AT LIVERPOOL, ENGLAND.

WILL CROSS THE ATLANTIC OCEAN

Both Vessels Belong to the Cunard Line, and is Expected Thousands of Dollars Will Be Placed on Result.

Special to the Democrat-Sentinel.

Liverpool, Sept. 7.—With the wild cheers of assembled thousands ringing over the waters, what promises to be the most exciting steamship race ever held was commenced this afternoon between the Lusitania, the biggest ship in the world, which is making its maiden voyage across the Atlantic, and the Lucania, holder of the record between Queenstown and Sandy Hook.

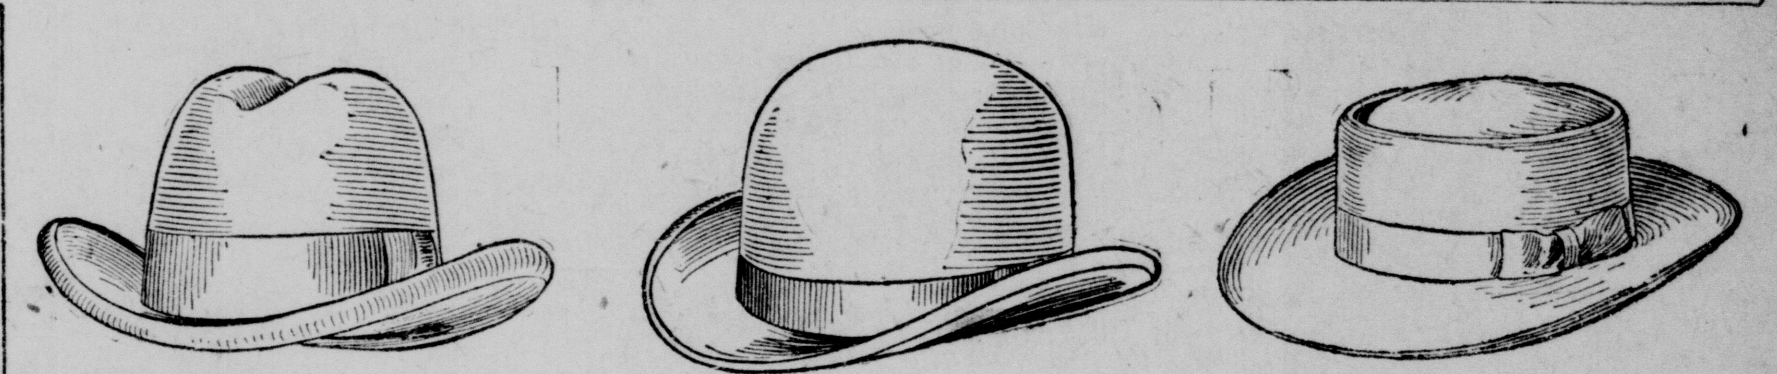

Under command of Captain James C. Barr the Lucania sailed early this afternoon. Shortly afterward the new turbine giant, Lusitania, set forth under the command of Captain J. B. Watt.

The great leviathan of the sea, beside which the largest of other steamships in the trans-Atlantic trade seem small, carried the fullest possible quota of passengers, and the Cunard company refused hundreds of applications from people who were anxious to cross on the Lusitania's first voyage.

The Lusitania will proceed under easy steam to Queenstown in order to give the Lucania time to embark her passengers and get away. The Lusitania will leave Queenstown at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning. Then will commence the great contest of speed from Daunt's Rock to Sandy Hook.

The Lucania should be on the broad expanse of the Atlantic doing 21 knots with three hours start when the new turbine monster emerges from Queenstown, but traveling at the rate of 24 knots, the latter will probably overhaul the Lucania long before the statue of liberty is sighted.

The fact that the Lusitania is not to be driven at her top speed on her maiden voyage will give the Lucania a sporting chance of arriving first at New York. The Lucania will travel at its topmost speed from the coast of Ireland to Sandy Hook lightship, a distance of 2,800 miles. Each of the ships will burn at least 1,000 tons of coal a day.

Among the passengers on the two vessels are many American millionaires, and during the trip vast sums will undoubtedly be wagered on the result. Both contesting vessels are Cunard liners, and the race was arranged as a test of the superiority of the new vessel.

On her trial trip the Lusitania, over a 1,000 mile course, did 25½ knots for an average hourly speed. The Lucania has made the fastest trip ever recorded between Queenstown and New York—5 days, 7 hours and 23 minutes—which record she accomplished in 1894, when Horatio McKay commanded her. The vessels will not race back, it having been arranged to keep the Lucania in New York but three days, whereas the Lusitania will not sail from New York on the return voyage until September 21.

On her famous record trip the Lucania left Queenstown at 10:32 a. m. October 21, 1894. Her daily runs were: 529, 538, 549, 544, and 90 miles to Sandy Hook, where she arrived at 4 p. m. on October 26. Her total distance covered between Daunt's Rock, where time is taken at Ireland, and Sandy Hook, where is taken at New York, is 2,779 knots. Whether the Lusitania will break this record, and how much, is the principal subject of conversation among Englishmen today.

The Lucania has only two screws, whereas the Lusitania has four. The new giant of the deep is 785 feet long, 88 feet wide, and 69 feet deep from the shelter deck, or 78 feet from the boat deck, which, however, is topped by still another deck. Her floating weight is about 38,000 tons, and it is estimated that in order to propel her at the required sea speed of 24½ knots the turbines will require to develop 68,000 horse power, requiring a coal consumption of at least 1,000 tons a day, or 6,000 tons for the voyage. The coal for one trip would last 400 ordinary householders fifty years.

The Lusitania and her sister ship, the Mauretania, now being fitted out, on the Tyne, were constructed with a view to their use as commerce destroyers of fast transports in case of war with a maritime power. With that object in view the British government advanced the Cunard company a loan of 2,600,000 pounds at 3½ per cent, and also promised a yearly subsidy of 150,000 pounds. It was stipulated that the speed should be at least 24½ knots. In view of the magnitude of the project, a special commission of experts investigated the relative merits of turbine and reciprocating engines. Turbines were adopted, and these, six in number, constitute the Lusitania's most striking departure from previous practice. The six turbines really constitute two sets of three.

In her interior furnishings the Lusitania is a floating palace. Each public room is finished in the style of some well known period. If the promises made by the builders of the Lusitania are fulfilled, it will mark the final supremacy of British over German shipbuilders.

HAD A NARROW ESCAPE

Hale Blackman Fell Under Wheels of a Wagon.

Hale Blackman, the 9-year-old son of Mrs. A. N. Blackman, manager of the LeGrande hotel, had a miraculous escape from serious injury or death on Lamie street, just in front of the county jail, at 9 o'clock Saturday morning.

The lad was playing with several other boys, when a man driving a team hitched to a farm wagon, to which was attached another vehicle with iron wheels, came along.

The Blackman child ran to ride on the last vehicle, and grabbed hold of the tongue of the wagon. He missed his hold and fell to the pavement, his head falling squarely under the wheels of the wagon.

He was dragged a distance of ten feet, when the driver stopped, before the lad had been injured beyond a few scratches.

HIT WITH A BEER BOTTLE

W. H. Hull, a Missouri Pacific Brakeman, Saturday.

W. L. Hull, a Missouri Pacific brakeman with Conductor Brummerhoff on trains Nos. 95 and 96, was struck in the head with a beer bottle by a negro whose name is unknown here, while braking on No. 95 at Montserrat Saturday morning. He was not seriously injured.

No. 2 made a special stop at Montserrat and brought the injured man here.

The negro was put off the train by the brakeman, and after committing the offense he attempted to run. He jumped on top of one train, then alighted and jumped onto another, when he was caught and placed in jail.

AN AGED FARMER KILLED

Injured in a Runaway and Died Four Hours Later.

J. T. Fleming, a well-to-do farmer living three miles east of Palo Pinto, Benton county, was fatally injured in a runaway accident at 9 o'clock Friday morning, death claiming him four hours later.

Mr. Fleming was 70 years old, and had gone to a neighbor's after a sulky rake. En route home the team ran away and Mr. Fleming was thrown from the rake and dragged quite a distance.

Deceased leaves a widow and four children. One of his sons is a physician in St. Louis and one of his daughters is a missionary in China.

Burglarized a Grocery.

Ridenour's grocery store, at Ohio and Pettis streets, conducted by John Payne, was broken into by unknown parties some time Friday night. So far, only a few pennies from the cash drawer are missing. Entrance was gained by breaking a front window, the thief crawling through the opening.

MALARIA A SYSTEMIC BLOOD POISON

UNDERMINES THE HEALTH— LAYS THE FOUNDATION FOR DISEASE

Malaria comes from the absorption into the blood of germs and microbes which destroy the rich, nutritive qualities of the circulation and reduce it to a weak, watery, disease-spreading stream. The healthy color of the skin is given to it by the millions of little red corpuscles which are in the blood. These are the carriers of nourishment and health to all parts of the body; in other words the very life and vitalizing essence of the circulation. The destruction of these corpuscles by the malarial poison takes the color from the cheek, and in the first stages of Malaria we have pale, sallow faces, poor appetite, a bilious condition is set up, and we feel "out of sorts" generally. But Malaria means more than this; it is a systemic blood poison, which undermines the health and gives rise to innumerable and sometimes serious disorders and diseases if the poison is allowed to remain in the blood. As the blood becomes more and more polluted with the malarial poison, the digestion becomes deranged, chills and fever are frequent, skin diseases, boils and carbuncles, and sores and ulcers break out on the flesh, and after awhile the foundation is laid for other diseases which either prove fatal or permanently undermine and wreck the health. Malaria can only be worked out of the system through the blood. Purging the liver and bowels with strong, nauseating cathartics can never remove the trouble because they do not reach the blood where the germs are constantly multiplying. The only hope for a cure is a remedy that can destroy the germs and microbes, and neutralize the bad effects of the poison, and S. S. S. is the medicine to accomplish this, because it is a perfect blood purifier and a general systemic remedy of unequalled value. S. S. S. searches out and removes every trace of the malarial poison and puts the blood in such rich, healthy condition that sallow, anemic complexions take on the ruddy glow of health, the liver and digestion are righted, the appetite improved, the system vitalized and strengthened, and every symptom of Malaria passes away. Malarial persons will find S. S. S. not only a prompt remedy but a gentle, pleasant acting one, as well as a certain cure for this disease. Besides removing the cause of Malaria S. S. S. builds up every part of the system by its fine tonic effects. Persons living in a malarial section should, at this season, fortify their systems against this insidious disease by purifying their blood with a course of S. S. S. Book on the blood and any medical advice desired sent free of charge.

MISSIONARY MATTERS

One Type of Eloquence That Will Win Anywhere.

Recently at a layman's meeting at Richmond, Va., Mr. R. E. Breit, president of a Texas oil company, when called on for an address said: "Brethren, I never made a speech in my life, and I won't make one now, but if Bro. Williamson (secretary of the Missionary society) will send ten men to Chicago, he can send the bill to me."

With regard to the student volunteer movement, 250 students sailed for mission fields last year. They represented forty missionary fields in this country and Canada. Total members now in the field, 3,207. Through the influence of this movement over sixty American schools and colleges contributed each $300 more to missions last year. Many sent out their own graduates and maintain them.

A movement has been inaugurated in Great Britain somewhat akin to the American laymen's movement, which a Canadian missionary secretary has called "potentially the most important religious movement of the century."

The Christian Herald publishes two very significant pictures of the Coliseum at Rome. "Two Prayer Meetings." One of the first century, where the Christian martyrs are praying while the savage beasts are being turned into the arena. One of the Twentieth century, when over one thousand delegates to the world's Sunday school convention are bowed in prayer.

A peculiar and significant ceremony recently took place in the Philippines where a number of Christian converts publicly burned the images they had formerly worshipped.

A STRIKE AT A FUNERAL

TWO THOUSAND MOURNERS ARE HALTED AN HOUR WHILE UNIONS ROW.

AID OF THE POLICE WAS SOUGHT

Three Labor Elements Take Separate Routes—Hearse Is Not Accompanied to the Grave by Carriages.

New York, Sept. 7.—Solemn requiem mass was said over the body of Michael Feeley at St. Vincent de Paul's church Friday morning, and over 2,000 mourners trooped in silence from the church in readiness to join the funeral procession to Calvary cemetery.

But while the last ceremonies were being held inside the church, the hearse driver and the men on the boxes of the mourners' carriages began a bitter quarrel over union difficulties and while the coffin was being placed in the hearse the men deserted their seats.

The undertaker besought the drivers to resume their seats, but they were obstinate. Their spokesman explained that three separate "antagonistic drivers' unions, the United Teamsters' association of America, the International Brotherhood of Teamsters and the Liberty Dawn association, were represented, and that as the organizations were not friendly to each other, none of the drivers would work.

As the minutes passed and no relief came, and the streets grew more and more congested, Undertaker Hamilton sent a hurry call to the Bedford avenue police station for aid. In double quick time, Captain Francis Creamer, with ten men, came on the scene. This placed matters in a new light, but the drivers were still obstinate.

It was against the principles of the Liberty Dawn men to drive behind the United Teamsters, and the United Teamsters were equally unwilling to co-operate with either of the other two associations.

After much argument and more delay, it was finally suggested that each batch of carriages go separate ways, with the cemetery as their objective point. This strange compact was finally agreed on, and the 126 mourners' carriages wheeled and separated.

The hearse went its way alone and unaccompanied, and the body reached the cemetery after a delay of nearly an hour.

A REPUTATION.

How It Was Made and Retained in Sedalia.

A good reputation is not easily earned, and it was only by hard, consistent work among our citizens that Doan's Kidney Pills won their way to the proud distinction attained in this locality. The public endorsement of scores of Sedalia residents has rendered invaluable service to the community. Read what this citizen says:

P. Disqua, living at 1109 South Ohio street, Sedalia, Mo., says: "My wife was greatly annoyed with pains in the small of the back just over the region of the kidneys. At such times she was scarcely able to get up from a chair after sitting, and the secretions from the kidneys were too frequent and often accompanied by a sensation of scalding. A neighbor advised her to try Doan's Kidney Pills, so we went to W. E. Bard's drug store and got a box. They helped her so much that she kept on taking them until she had used three boxes. Several months have passed since then and there has been no sign of the trouble. Mrs. Disqua feels that she can add her testimony to that of others who have been cured by Doan's Kidney Pills."

New York Fashion Letter

BY CATHERINE MANN-PAYZANT

Special to the Democrat-Sentinel.

New York, Sept. 7.—Just at present Norfolk and Jamestown are utterly different, in the matter of the styles of gowns worn by women visitors, from the crowd that one usually sees there in the winter months, and the consequent and predominant styles look to traveling purposes, to utility and serviceability. The great population is a drifting and changing crowd and the clothes worn are not such as are suited for a season at some regular seaside or mountain resort. If the feminine visitor would make the most of her opportunities to inspect the beauties and wonders of the little exposition at Norfolk, she will be wise to provide a wardrobe that will answer any possible emergency.

While utility is the main consideration, with its consequent comfort, beauty need not be wholly neglected. True, an outfit which combines both qualities in great measure is difficult of arrangement, for it must be planned so that everything will harmonize and each garment, at a pinch, do service for some other that is out of repair or forgotten. The small accessories, so necessary to comfort on a jaunt of this kind, must not be overlooked, as it is due to them that so many changes can be made and so many new effects obtained. One should have a traveling dress—one will be enough—that will do for many affairs, and with it must come different waists, berthas, neckwear and belts, that can be brought to its aid. There should be a dress that, with small alterations, can be changed into dinner, theatre, concert or evening gown. For this purpose nothing equals the jumper or overblouse dress, which, with the underwaist, can produce many effects. There must be a gown, with different underslips, will give an evening gown or an afternoon dress. In addition, there should be costumes in linen and silk and wool; and according to one's stay, be it long or short, can the number be cut down or added to.

There are a great many linens in all varieties shown this season, suitable for the exposition visitor. The French linen is especially soft in finish and desirable. Pale blue, rose color and dull greens are equally in vogue with the whites and creams, and in most cases they have been so well dyed that sun and water will have little effect upon them, and they will last the season out and with care, perhaps another. The heavier lines are being extensively used for the guimpe princess dresses. The guimpe is usually of embroidery or lace, the fillet lace being the most fashionable just now. In brown and dark blue nothing can be nicer for a traveling suit, and if it becomes much worn during the journey and sight-seeing it need not be so expensive that one feels badly to throw it away.

Striped effects still continue to be fashionable, and instead of a plain ground with flowers or garlands scattered over it, apparently at random, but in reality in a most studied design, there is now a fine black or colored stripe in the material, forming a sort of trellis effect with flowers climbing over it. In mousseline de soie and all such light, cool textures this design is truly charming.

If you are too fat it is because your food turns to fat instead of muscle—strength. If you are too lean the fat producing foods that you eat are not properly digested and assimilated. Lean, thin, stringy people do not have enough Pepsin in the stomach, while fat people have too much Pepsin and not enough Pancreatic.

Kodol For Dyspepsia

Contains all the digestive juices that are found in a healthy stomach, and in exactly those proportions necessary to enable the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate all foods that may be eaten. what the fall fashions will be. Women are keeping closely to the styles set down in the spring and early summer, and there have been few innovations as the season progresses toward autumn. Even in New York the fashion mart is dull, and although the buyers, modistes, milliners and designers are returning from Europe, it will not be until the middle of the month that the first feelers are put out to test the popular favor. The glory of the summer resorts will begin to fail at that time and the thoughts of women will turn to fall and winter dress.

A few things hinted at are shorter walking skirts and extremely manish (tailor suits, more elaborate afternoon costumes, and longer sleeves. And the hats—ugly is the only word descriptive of the few fall shapes being shown at present. The mushroom shape has survived its popularity of the early spring and is now seen in a less exaggerated form—the hat fitting almost down on the head, with its brim fitting down all around. The new mushroom is almost like the sailor in effect, for there is little difference in the width of the brim in the front, back or sides. For a traveling hat in dark blue, green or burnt straw, the small mushroom was trimmed simply with a band of soft gathered ribbon about the crown, brought down over the brim in the back and forming a large cache-peigne in bows and rosettes.

There's a reason for that ache in your back—right where it "stitches" every time you bend over, turn around or walk any distance. It's your kidneys. Take DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills. They are unequalled for backache, weak kidneys and inflammation of the bladder. A week's treatment 25 cents. Sold by Arlington pharmacy.

CAPT. HOLLAND RESIGNS

Will Remove From Sedalia to Kansas City Monday.

Capt. T. C. Holland, for the past twenty-five years an esteemed resident of Sedalia, will depart tomorrow for Kansas City to reside, and in future will peruse the Democrat-Sentinel each day at 2529 Askew avenue in the city at the mouth of the Kaw. At Friday night's meeting of Amity lodge No. 69, A. O. U. W., Capt. Holland resigned the office of recorder, which he has held for twenty-nine consecutive terms, and also withdrew from the order, after a membership of many years.

The assessments have been unusually heavy on the older members of the A. O. U. W. for some time past, and when advised this month of another double-header, Capt. Holland decided that the expense was more than he could stand, so he withdrew.

The removal of Capt. Holland makes necessary his resignation as an officer in no less than ten local fraternal and other organizations.

Object Was Not Purchase. Managers and clerks in large department stores of necessity have to deal with all classes of people, and they often have most amusing experiences, owing to the peculiarities of their customers, says the Philadelphia Record. While waiting for an exchange at the silk counter in a Market street establishment a clerk told a West Philadelphia shopper a story which she has since been circulating among her circle of friends. "An up-town customer," the clerk said, "last week had six yards of a most expensive silk sent C. O. D. The next day the package was returned to us and upon it was written: 'Returned. I was only teaching my daughter how to shop.'"

Sunday Schools' Work

DR. G. L. SHEPARD, CO. SUPT.—NO. 27.

As stated last week, we are preparing for the September meeting of the Sedalia Sunday School union. We have four papers promised, one on "Preparation." This, of course, will include the subject of "The Qualified Teacher." We also have one entitled "The Qualified Teacher," and two on the subject of "Regularity and Punctuality."

These topics headed the list of important points in our late correspondence. As they are considered vital by so large a number of our Sunday school workers, we are hoping for a good attendance to hear and discuss these papers. We have requested papers of about ten minutes' length, and hope to have brief discussions on them.

Let everybody give the subject careful thought before the meeting. It is by careful study of the subjects that the greatest good will be accomplished. We hope to have our meeting the third week in September. Time and place will be given next week.

We have received an invitation to a special Sunday school meeting to be held Sunday morning at 10:30, September 15, at the Second Congregational church in this city. This will take the place of the regular morning service. Such a meeting, carefully planned and carried out, should be of great interest and value. See the following item, from the Missouri Sunday School News:

"Rev. Dr. C. R. Blackwell, of Philadelphia, editor of 'The Superintendent' (Baptist), has the following to say about the Sunday school:

It ought to be enough to make all our pastors Sunday school pastors.

TWELVE NEW VILLAGES NEAR NEW YORK FOR CHILDREN OF THE STREETS.

"BOY SPECIALIST" AND HIS WORK

He Solves Many Curious Problems of Human Nature—How "Do Head Guy" and the Arab Come to Terms in Gotham

Special to the Democrat-Sentinel.
New York, Sept. 7.—Including several now being built, twelve villages have been established within the vicinity of New York during the past four years to serve as homes for children. The New York Juvenile asylum was the first of the reformatory institutions in this city to move out into the open country where its young charges could live in pretty cottages, surrounded by gardens, farm lands and playgrounds. The success of this change from the old time barracks life was so marked that eleven other reformatories have followed the example set by the Juvenile asylum. In all these village colonies children from the slums and the tenements are taught farming and various trades in addition to receiving a common school education and learning how to play—the street boy is pathetically lacking in all knowledge of healthy pastimes. The young villagers in their rural surroundings are brought into contact with Mother Nature, who browns their cheeks, builds up impoverished bodies and straightens out mental and moral kinks.

A FAMOUS "BOY SPECIALIST."
Superintendent Charles D. Hilles, of the New York Juvenile Asylum, a Leader in Reformatory Methods.

Even with the most modern sort of plant for making good citizens, such as that of the Juvenile asylum, with its widely spaced cottages, built to accommodate no more than twenty boys each, its hospital, farm, school, trade-teaching shops, merit system of marking, which incites to personal endeavor, because it provides personal rewards, its huge playground and its many acres of woodland, the whole, to be effective, must be vitalized by the "personal touch," by the knowledge of the boy specialist.

According to Mr. Hilles, and experience will doubtless convince each of us of the correctness of his statement, no two boys are by any chance exactly alike in mind and body. Opportunity is given the boy specialist by the cottage type of reformatory to study each boy so that each may be treated as an individual.

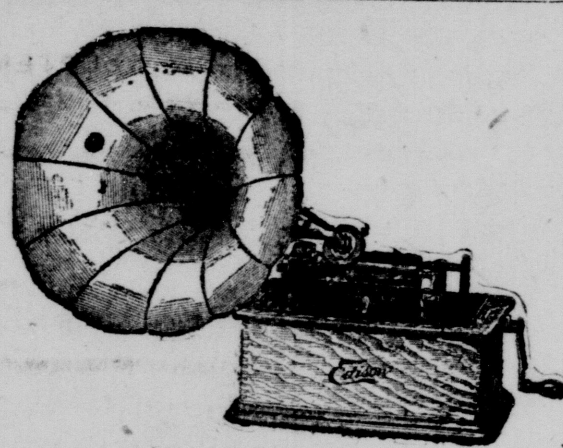

"We regard each of our charges as a separate problem," says Mr. Hilles, "and from the very first use every effort to merit not the boy's fear, which might easily be achieved through strictly enforced arbitrary rules and accompanying punishments meted out by keepers, but his love and confidence."

Something is almost invariably accomplished during the first interview between the delinquent and the boy specialist, though not often without difficulty.

A boy recently admitted to the children's village had not only been deprived of the guidance of both mother and father in his fight with the world, but had also suffered the loss of one leg in a ride stealing episode upon a freight train. He lived by begging, and was so successful because of his affliction that he earned much more than enough for his needs. The surplus which he had accumulated had drawn him into evil

The novice is immediately "up against it," as the boy himself puts it, since only the merest baby of the slums, too young to talk intelligently, is able to "size up" the stranger. Older children are so "wise" that they instantly discern lack of experience on the part of the questioner with disastrous results to him. Suppose that, with a desire to show kindness and sympathy, you should ask: "How old are you, little boy?" or "Do you go to school?" of some precocious infant of 7, engaged in the paper vending business. The imp, covered with a degree of accumulated dirt, which caused Owen Wister to exclaim of a London street boy on a similar occasion, "How is it possible in the short span of seven years?" very likely would answer your inquiry with, "Aw, go on, you Jolsey, watter tink I am?"

But the novice should not feel the rebuff too keenly, because in the presence of the one he calls the "wise guy," the man who knows all about the street boy and the way to his heart, the gamin is not abashed, though to be sure his impertinence is then a mark of favor rather than derision. A little story in point is that told by Mr. Charles D. Hilles, superintendent of the New York Juvenile asylum, who devotes all his time and energy to saving the street boys from shipwreck upon the rocks of crime, everywhere present in the slum life of the greater cities. Each boy sent to the children's village of the asylum is taken before Mr. Hilles to be questioned as a means of learning his individual traits, and as a method of establishing amicable relations. This particular boy had come into collision with the law on numerous occasions, but with the cleverness of his kind had long eluded attempts to bring him before the children's court. When asked by Mr. Hilles with what offense he was charged he replied:

"I was playin' a game of checkers wid de cop, and it was my turn to move and I didn't move, so he jumped me, see!" His address, he said was 23 Lemon street.

If not according to the ethics of good behavior and manners, these answers were at least friendly and only unconsciously impudent from the specialist's point of view. In fact, the boy specialist who sets himself the task of dealing with delinquent children of the city's manufacture must realize first of all that the gamin is in all ways abnormal, having lived an abnormal life, and that he is to be judged and weighed by no common standards.

Even with the most modern sort of plant for making good citizens, such as that of the Juvenile asylum, with its widely spaced cottages, built to accommodate no more than twenty boys each, its hospital, farm, school, trade-teaching shops, merit system of marking, which incites to personal endeavor, because it provides personal rewards, its huge playground and its many acres of woodland, the whole, to be effective, must be vitalized by the "personal touch," by the knowledge of the boy specialist.

surroundings. His home had been in a house of unsavory reputation, and his companions criminals of both sexes. Upon his arrival at the village he was called into the superintendent's office in no very amiable frame of mind. To a long list of persuasive questions he answered only with surly monosyllables, until Mr. Hilles had almost despaired of making a friend of him.

"Have you any pets?" was asked finally.

"Yes, replied the boy, with his first show of interest, 'I had a dog and a pigeon.'

"Where are they now?" Mr. Hilles asked.

"Aw, I don't know," the lad said, rather huskily, "but," and this was said very fiercely, "I'd paid my room rent for a week and they got a right to keep 'em that long. But wats de use," he continued, with a suspicious quiver about his lips, "I won't never see 'em again."

"How would you like to have them up here?" was the next question.

"Aw, stop your kiddin'" was the surly reply; and then as an after thought and altogether incredulously, "do you really mean it?"

"Yes, I mean it."

"Say, Mister," the boy said, with tears in his eyes, "if you bring dem tykes up here dere ain't nothin' I won't do for you."

"All right," said Mr. Hilles, "up they come."

And there was cemented a bond of friendship between the specialist who knew how and the boy who had hitherto felt that every man's hand was against him. He is working now at his studies and is regulating his conduct in such a manner as to win the approval of "de head guy" and to insure his getting the greatest good from the new system.

There are two ways to deal with the street Arab, the specialist has learned, one good, one bad. The first or old method is to "break" him, as the cowboy "busts" a broncho. The second is patiently and painstakingly to train him as a thoroughbred is trained, substituting love and individual treatment for routine handling. But to do this successfully you must be a boy specialist, for, though sympathy and love are essential in the work, so is the knowledge of the time when discipline is necessary. Misguided kindness, the preternaturally sharp gamin would instantly employ to "work" his benefactor. The boy specialist is fully equipped to detect shamming and to be firm where firmness is required.

"Edgar Rodman," says Mr. Hilles, "was one who required firm handling. For a considerable period before his advent here and after the death of his father he had been utterly intolerant of his mother's control, and had become firmly convinced that he was a law unto himself.

When he came to us and was told to sit down he replied with a defiant 'No,' becoming profane and vicious when we remonstrated with him. It required thirty-nine consecutive days in which to teach him that the first letter of the alphabet of life was obedience. After that he learned many useful things, including printing, and is now working in New York, earning two-thirds of a man's pay, and with a perspective of life in which the old injurious stubbornness has no place."

Edgar might have been subdued in shorter order if flogging and other corporal punishments were believed in or resorted to in the children's village. But it is not. Flogging would awake in the breast of the typical street boy a feeling of resentment and hate which would effectually militate against reform and the spirit of self respect and self reliance which it is sought to instill. What is done in extreme cases is to sentence the refractory boy to the drill squad, where he is compelled to perform light gymnastics, which, though healthful, are terribly monotonous when long pursued. Taken in connection with the fact that a boy of the drill squad is denied all privileges of pleasure and play enjoyed by all the other boys, this method is quite sufficient and leaves no smoldering sense of humiliation and enmity.

CONTRACT PRICES ON School Books

DON'T PAY MORE.

Below we give a list of contract prices on all school books. Be sure to keep this list and don't be overcharged on your books. The prices we name are not special prices, but are the prices set by the state of Missouri and at which all school boards have contracted with the publishers for the books to be sold at; but some dealers are not staying by the contract and are selling all of the books at higher prices. So we again repeat, DON'T PAY MORE than the prices we list. We also give the exchange prices, which are the prices at which books will be supplied where you have old books of the same grade.

The President's Apprentice.
It takes juvenile wit to fit the adequate word to a man's occupation.

A group of small boys—playmates of Quentin Roosevelt—were standing in front of the Rochambeau statue in Lafayette square, Washington, the other day when a victoria rolled out of the White House grounds and headed up Jackson place. The man who rode in the victoria wore a dark mustache and glasses and a silk hat was set above his agreeable face.

The smallest of the boys raised his cap and executed the most polite salutation in the direction of the victoria, the occupant of which returned the bow with a genial smile.

"Who were you bowing to, Kid-die?" said the tallest to the littlest of the boys, and the latter replied with the utmost pride and respect, "I was bowing to the president's apprentice."

His Memory at Fault.
A voracious observer dropped into one of Washington's most popular cafes the other day, merely to get a match. While the bartender was mixing the phosphorus a man prominent in local business and social circles strolled in and took a half Nelson hold on the rail. From his appearance one would have thought that he had just recovered from a severe illness or was suffering from fatty degeneration of the equilibrium. Evidently he was well known to the worthy mixer, for that dignitary drew forth a paper and put himself at the sick man's service.

"Shay, have you sheen m' friend, Congressman —, in here this afternoon?"

"Yes, sir, he was in here about an hour ago."

The visitor leaned farther forward and with evident anxiety inquired in what was meant for a whisper: "Shay, wuzsh I with him?"

MARSHAL DIES OF WOUNDS

Kopf, Shot in Pacific, Leaves Wife and Four Children.

Pacific, Mo., Sept. 7.—Albert Kopf, marshal of Pacific, who was shot Tuesday morning while trying to arrest Charles Anderson, died at 9:15 o'clock last night of his wounds. Anderson, who was shot by Dr. A. L. McNay while trying to escape, is in the Union jail.

Marshal Kopf is survived by his wife and four children. He was a member of the Knights of Pythias and Modern Woodmen of America lodges. His funeral will be held Sunday in Mosele, twelve miles east of Pacific.

Keeping Youthful Things.

A busy woman once said that she never knew how much she could accomplish until she became the companion of her young sons, sharing their sports and limiting her own working hours to theirs. To-day they are young men and she looks like their sister. There are other young mothers of grown men and they are rather formidable rivals to younger women. The sons unconsciously make comparisons, generally in favor of mother. It is beautiful to "grow up" in this fashion with one's children, says a writer; to keep pace with them in new studies and new thoughts, something like a second youth. We are so quick to put away youthful things unless we have some such incentive to hold them.

WISE WORDS TO SUFFERERS

From a Woman of Notre Dame, Ind.

I will mail, free of any charge, this Home Treatment with full instructions and history of my own case to any lady suffering with female trouble. You can cure yourself at home without the aid of any physician. It will cost you nothing to give the treatment a trial, and if you decide to continue it will cost you about 15 cents a week. It will not interfere with your work or occupation. I have nothing to sell. Tell other sufferers of it—this is all I ask. It cures all, young or old. If you feel a bearing-down sensation, sense of impending evil, pain in the back or bowels, creeping feeling up the spine, a desire to cry frequently, hot flashes, weakness, frequent desire to urinate, or if you have Leucorrhea (Whites), Displacement or Falling of the Womb, Profuse, Scanty or Painful Periods, Tumors or Growths, address Mrs. M. Summers, Box 412, Notre Dame, Ind., U. S. A., for the Free Treatment and Full Information. Thousands besides myself have cured themselves with it. I send it in plain wrappers.

TO MOTHERS OF DAUGHTERS I will explain a simple Home Treatment which speedily and successfully cures Leucorrhea, Green Discharge and Painful or Irregular Menstruation in young ladies. It will save you anxiety and expense and save your daughter the humiliation of explanation to others. Plumpness and health always result from its use. Wherever you live I can refer you to well-known ladies of your own State or country who know and will gladly tell any sufferer that this Home Treatment really cures all diseased conditions of our delicate female organism, thoroughly strengthens relaxed muscles and ligaments which cause displacement, and makes women well. Write to-day, as this offer will not be made again.

"You have my heartfelt thanks for curing me of a very severe case of displacement caused by leucorrhea. I had suffered for years, and before obtained only temporary relief." MRS. M. D. ABRETT, Newark, Mo. "After three doctors pronounced my case incurable, your Home Treatment has entirely relieved me of womb and ovarian trouble." VERA WEST, Billings, Mo. "Although my wife had been in a helpless condition for months, and I had spent hundreds of dollars for relief, your Home Treatment has entirely cured her. Accept our heart-felt thanks." L. F. STIPES, Slater, Mo.

New York Sport Gossip

KNOX BLOCKOFF

Special to the Democrat-Sentinel.

New York, Sept. 7.—Fight fans of both the Atlantic and Pacific states will have a chance next week to see what should be some slugging good bouts.

Of greatest importance, of course, is the mix-up between Joe Gans and Jimmy Britt for the lightweight championship of the world, which is to be the star feature of the Admission day celebration at San Francisco Monday.

On Wednesday night the sports of the Atlantic coast will gather in Philadelphia by hundreds to see the six-round go between Tommy Murphy, of Harlem, and Fighting Dick Hyland, of California, two of the best and fastest little men of their class in the world.

Bridgeport, Conn., will be the scene of the third big battle of the week, when two heavyweights, Sailor Burke and Jack Johnson, meet. The sailor will be strongly backed by his Brooklyn friends, but those who have followed Johnson's record closely during the last few months believe that the big moke is the real goods in the heavyweight field. The Burke-Johnson mill will be pulled off on Thursday.

At this distance there doesn't appear anything but Gans in the San Francisco affair. Gans is a heavy favorite over California's native son among the betting men of Gotham, and there is little Britt money in sight. A few think the Baltimore darkey has gone back since he fought Nelson, but in case he has it will likely take a more rugged fighter than Britt to prove it. It is the opinion of many followers of the game that George Mensie will come nearer taking Gans' title away from him than will Britt. Mensie is a powerful youngster and can stand the gaff better than Britt.

According to reports from Frisco, Jack Gleason has already prepared the staging for the big lightweight battle. A ball field has been converted into a fight pavilion for the occasion. The ring is located in the center of the field, and the grandstand will serve as the reserved section for the fight fans. The bleachers have been converted into a haven for the gallery gods, while the space between the ring and the grandstand has been filled with boxes. It is stated that Gans will have no trouble to make the weight, and is already near the 133 pounds agreed upon. Gans had a long siege of preparation, having commenced training some time ago, when he was getting into condition for his fight with George Mensie, which was later postponed. Manager Gleason has promised the men 75 per cent of the receipts, with a guarantee of $25,000. If he makes good on that figure, Gans and Britt will have to draw better than they did in their previous Frisco fight, when the receipts were $22,895. With the evident superiority of Gans' generally accepted, it appears doubtful if there will be that much money in the house. Gleason believes the battle will draw $50,000. This would break all Frisco records for lightweight fights, the receipts of the second Britt-Nelson fight coming the nearest that mark, $48,355. The fighters' share of the purse will be split, 60 and 40, so that both stand to get a good wad out of the meeting.

Another lightweight match that should prove to be a hummer, and one of the best of the year, is that between Fighting Dick Hyland and Harlem Tommy Murphy, which will open the season at the National A. C., Philadelphia, next Wednesday night. The bout will, of course, be of the six-round, no decision variety. The purse will be $2,500, to be split evenly. Hyland has been training for the mill at Stratford, Conn. Murphy is doing his training at Lake Friend, in the Adirondacks.

Apparently, Hyland and Murphy are as evenly matched as any two little fellows who could be found. Murphy will enter the ring a few pounds heavier than the Californian, and has an advantage of half an inch in height. Hyland is slightly broader across the shoulders. In other respects they are very much alike. Both are footnoters in the matter of drink and tobacco. Both are exceeding polite, quiet, modest in demeanor, and, withal, totally different from the average fighter. Lastly, both can fight like little devils—if they will pardon me for using that naughty word.

The heavyweight battle of the week will be that between Jack Johnson and Sailor Burke, to be pulled off in a theater at Bridgeport, Conn., Thursday night. Two special trains will carry a large contingent of fans from New York, and it is confidently expected that they will see a mill that will well repay them for the trip. Sailor Burke is far from being a dub—some of his New York friends modestly claim that he could whip Jeffries—but for the real coming heavyweight champion, watch Johnson's smoke. That's all.

IN A LARGE CIRCUS TENT

NATIONAL CONVENTION WILL MEET AT DUBUQUE, IA., TOMORROW.

POPE SENDS A REPRESENTATIVE

Conclave Opens With a Parade, Passing Through Streets Elaborately Decorated for the Memorable Occasion.

Special to Democrat-Sentinel.

Dubuque, Ia., Sept. 7.—With the gathering today of delegates from all over the United States, and the arrival of many high dignitaries of the Roman church, the national convention of the German Catholic Central Verein, which opens in Dubuque tomorrow, promises to be the largest in the history of the order.

The Pope will be represented by Mgr. Falconio, the papal delegate to the United States. It will be the first time since his residence in this country that he has been sent west of the Mississippi, and the western German Catholic societies feel elated over the honor conferred upon them. The monsignor will speak several times during the sessions.

Other church dignitaries who will deliver addresses include Archbishop Elek, of New Orleans; Archbishop Quigley, of Chicago; Bishop Messmer, of Milwaukee; and Bishop Schumier, of Superior. All of the speeches will be delivered in a large circus tent, with a seating capacity of 6,000, owing to the fact that Dubuque has no building large enough to entertain a gathering of such large proportions.

The conclave opens tomorrow afternoon with a parade, which will pass through streets elaborately decorated for the occasion. At least a dozen bands will be in line, and several thousand marchers.

In addition to the national gathering, the St. Boniface League of Iowa will also hold its convention here during the coming week.

ANOTHER WONDER OF SCIENCE.

Biology Has Proved That Dandruff Is Caused by a Germ.

Science is doing wonders these days in medicine as well as in mechanics. Since Adam lived, the human race has been troubled with dandruff, for which no hair preparation has heretofore proved a successful cure until Newbro's Herculicide was put on the market. It is a scientific preparation that kills the germ that makes dandruff or scurf by digging into the scalp to get at the root of the hair, where it saps the vitality, causing itching scalp, falling hair, and finally baldness. Without dandruff hair must grow luxuriantly. It is the only destroyer of dandruff. Sold by leading druggists. Send for stamps for sample to The Herculicide Co., Detroit, Mich. Two sizes, 50c and $1. Most Common Proper Names.

Census returns show that the most common proper names in the world are largely the same, regardless of the country where they are found. Change in the form of pronunciation of the name does not necessarily mean a different name. In England and Wales the 15 most common names are these: Smith, Jones, Williams, Taylor, Davies, Brown, Thomas, Evans, Roberts, Johnson, Wilson, Robinson, Wright, Wood and Thompson. In the order named. In Scotland they are Smith, McDonald, Brown, Thompson, Robertson, Stewart, Campbell, Wilson, Anderson, Scott, Miller, McKenzie, Reid, Ross, McKay. In Ireland we find Murphy, Kelly, Sullivan, Walsh, Smith, O'Brien, Byrne, Connor, O'Neill, Reilly, Doyle, McCarthy, Gallagher, Doherty and Kennedy. In the United States the names differ somewhat in the different cities, but on the whole they are very similar.

NEW GAME FOR FAT BOY.

Cleveland Gamins Have Devised Something Really Novel.

A bunch of small boys who were disporting themselves the other afternoon on a corner near the public square, have discovered a grand new game. They said it was lots of fun, and it is absolutely harmless. And it is not a game that requires extensive apparatus. The only important requirement to play the game successfully is a real fat boy.

The youngsters who were at it had the fat boy. He was about as fat as a boy as one could mention. With this fat boy and a lead pencil apiece in the hands of the other boys, the participants had everything that was required for the game.

Here is the way the game is played: The first player takes his pencil and places the eraser end against the fat boy's abdomen. Then he pushes the abdomen as far back as it will go and releases the pencil. The fat and muscles bounding back into place act as a sort of catapult and hurl the pencil for six or seven feet.

Then another boy tries it, and another, until all have had their turn. The one whose pencil flies the furthest wins. About the only drawback to the game is from the fat boy's point of view. Unless there is more than one fat boy playing he is always "it." —Cleveland Plain Dealer.

LIFE LINES IN THE STREETS.

Furnish Safety from the Deadly Clutch of the "Bora."

That which was once Illyria is now Dalmatia, or, rather, that part of Illyria which reaches to the Adriatic is Dalmatia, "the half-forgotten country," as the Austrians called it when it fell into their hands not so many years ago.

It is one of the few bits of Europe that remain in a measure unharmed, and it is still out of the beaten paths of the tourist, who himself is almost as much of a curiosity to the people as they are to him. There are seasons, according to a picturesque article in Appleton's Magazine, when the bora blows, that "wind of death," as the natives call it, which comes out of the blue with more than the suddenness of a tornado and shakes the earth and all that is on the earth, stinging, blinding, choking. In the square of Trieste life lines are prominent features, which the citizens must grasp when the bora clutches them, and they grope their way through the whirling dust and the promiscuous missiles flying in the darkened air. But the bora goes as quickly as it comes, and when it is gone the people simply excavate themselves out of the drift and think no more about the winged demon, which has left no trail whatever in the restored serenity of the scoured sky.

Owe Lamp Chimney to Child.

The comfortable and convenient lamp chimney of everyday use is to be attributed to a child's restlessness. Argand, a native of Switzerland, a poor man, invented a lamp the wick of which was fitted into a hollow cylinder that allowed a current of air to supply oxygen to the interior as well as the exterior of the circular frame. The lamp was a success, but its inventor had never thought of adding a glass chimney, and probably never would have thought of it had not his little brother been playing in his workshop while Argand was engaged with the burning lamp. The boy had gained possession of an old bottomless flask, and was amusing himself by putting it over the top of the lamp, and the flame instantly responded by shooting with increased brilliancy up the narrow neck of the flask. Argand's ready brain at once caught the idea, and his lamp was perfected by the addition of a glass chimney.

Making It Easy for Them.

A Chicago man recently sent as wedding presents to a bride and groom of whom he thought a great deal two chairs that were exactly alike. A lady, who had attended the wedding, met him a few days later and delicately asked him why he had sent two chairs. If he had put all his money in one chair he might have made his present appear magnificent, whereas neither of the chairs that he had purchased was especially impressive.

"I realize that," he said, "but I wanted to fix it so that the division of the spoils might be simplified when they got their divorce."

The Nicest Way He Knew.

A Boston physician has two young hopefuls, Master Tommy and Miss Jennie, the latter the elder by a year or two. A few days ago Master Tom came in, whimpering, with the complaint: "Papa, Jennie's got my roller skates on, and I want 'em, and she won't give 'em to me." "Did you ask her for them kindly, my son?" "Yes, papa." "Well, suppose you go back and try again. Ask her just the nicest way you know, and see if you can't get them." The youngster trotted out, and the father from the doorway heard him ask in wheedling tones: "Jennie, for God's sake, let me like them skates!"

A PATIENT'S GRATITUDE

Expressed by Diamond Rings for Two Fair Nurses.

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 7.—Misses Lena Robbins and Virginia Harris, nurses at the University hospital, were greatly surprised yesterday to receive handsome diamond solitaire rings, the stones in each weighing one carat.

The rings came from a former patient of the institution, whose name was withheld. The patient, who was in the hospital nearly a year ago, was without funds at the time and underwent a delicate operation.

Miss Harris was in charge of the operating room and Miss Robbins attended to the surgical ward. Since leaving the hospital the man has accumulated considerable wealth.

and Milwaukee, Wis.

Maplewood Items

Maplewood, Sept. 5.
The farmers are nearly through with their threshing, and all seem to be well pleased.

Miss Effie Norton has accepted the position of principal at the new school in East Sedalia.

We held our annual Sunday school picnic last Friday and a jolly good time was enjoyed by all.

Mr. Lee Williams, one of Maple-wood's young men, and Miss Carrie Sneed will leave for Columbia this week to attend the State University.

Miss Tinnie Norton leaves for Chicago Saturday, where she will spend a few weeks with her aunt.

Mr. J. S. Stephens and wife and Mrs. M. D. Hogan and family will leave Friday morning for Ottumwa, where they will spend a few days' fishing.

Mrs. G. M. Hoadley, who is visiting her daughter in Oklahoma, writes that she is having a delightful time.

Women of Great Bravery.
Women are not, as a class, either moral or physical cowards. In personal bravery they far excel the majority of men when faced by an emergency. Some of their achievements are worthy of record among the heroic deeds of the race. Lady Baker, an English woman, was such an absolute stranger to fear that she would walk alone into the tents of the most ruthless slave dealer and calmly lead off his captives from under his very eyes, and Mrs. Marion Mulhall, who risked death a dozen times and triumphed over the strongest man in the dark wild country that lies between the Amazon and the Andes, is a woman of such a frail and delicate appearance that one might think a March wind would blow her away.

Doctor Sets Cat's Shoulder Blade.

Bellevue hospital, New York, recently adopted a patient and gave it a life berth as chief mouse catcher of the institution. The reception room was crowded when a stranger entered with a rather aristocratic cat under his arm. Dr. Leroy Smith paused in his work to inquire. He learned that the stranger had picked the cat up on the street, where he had noticed it in apparent agony. Dr. Smith found a broken shoulder blade constituted the trouble. He set it and the cat was placed on a blanket in an outdoor tent.
The cat purred its gratitude. Many of the hospital doctors dropped in to take a look at Dr. Smith's patient and each voted for adoption.

HAVE A "SHOW ME" CLUB

HAS BEEN ORGANIZED AT SPO-KANE, IN THE STATE OF WASHINGTON.

ANNUAL GATHERING ON SEPT. 24

It is Said There Are More Than 5,000 Native Missourians Residing in That Section of the Country.

Special to the Democrat-Sentinel.

Spokane, Wash., Sept. 7.—Eighty native born Missourians, now residents of Spokane, completed the preliminary organization a few days ago of the "Show Me" club of the inland empire of the Pacific northwest, the temporary officers being F. B.
Wright, formerly of Kansas City, chairman, and Leo Walton, publisher of the Orator-Outburst, a former resident of St. Louis, secretary.

The first annual gathering will take place Sept. 24, designated Missouri day at the Spokane Interstate fair grounds, when representatives are expected to be in attendance from practically every town and hamlet in the district, which embraces 150,000 square miles in Eastern Washington and Oregon, Northern Idaho, Western Montana and Southeastern British Columbia.

"A postal card census taken last June shows that every county in the state of Missouri is represented in the Spokane country," said Mr.
Wright, "and to the county which has the largest number of residents in this district the club will award a massive silver loving cup, embellished with golden rod and the great seal of the commonwealth.

"We have more than 5,000 native Missourians in this part of the country, and if any other state in the Union can show a similar number we are ready to present its representatives with a trophy, but they have to 'show me.' Our people are engaged in various occupations, including farming, orcharding, mining and lumbering, and are all doing well."

'Why, I am,' I said. 'Huh!' he said,
'that's your job.'—Harper's Weekly.

New Fly of East Africa.
The new fly of East Africa, described by W. Donitz as Cordylobia murum, was discovered by Dr. Robert Koch as parasites in the skin of rats suspected of plague. Flies hatched from the maggots in just one month. It is supposed that the eggs are laid in the earth and that the larvae attached themselves to the parts of the rats touching the ground. Larvae of another fly of the same genus are found in boils of railroad builders in Guinea.

Newest Arrivals

In fall goods. Our buyer has just returned from the east, where he has been for the past week purchasing our lines of fall and winter goods. These are arriving daily and promise to be the largest and most complete lines we have ever carried. All the popular colors and patterns are on display at our store. Our line consists of batistes, voiles, panamas, henriettas, fancy worsted, fancy broadcloth, herringbone stripes and many others. Now is the time to think about what you are going to wear during the coming seasons. This usually means trouble in finding just what you want, but with such a line as we have this season pleasure takes the place of trouble.

BELTS.

Our new line of black and colored belts have just come in. We have everything in the way of belts, in all widths and colors, in both the leather and the undressed kid. Also a good line of silk belts.

PURSES.

Our line of purses has never been excelled by any other in the city. And this year we have made a special effort and have obtained everything, in size, shape and color, that can be bought. Call and see this line before making your choice.

PLEADED WITH BURGLAR

To Reform and Three Sisters Believe That He Did.

Hattiesburg, Miss., Sept. 7.—After trapping a burglar, Ruby, Jennie and Dora Grey, sisters, entertained their midnight visitor for two hours in such a fascinating manner that the intruder forgot his mission and decided to be good, the sisters say, on promise of his freedom.

The girls had just fallen asleep when they were awakened by a noise at a window of their room. Each thought it was a sister trying to scare her, but the shadow of a man soon showed them that it was a burglar.

Ruby Grey carefully crept out of bed, crawled to an obscure position, and when the burglar entered the room, turned on the light and closed the window.

For two hours they pleaded with him to reform. He said he wanted nothing but money. The girls gave him their small change and then he departed. They reported the matter to the police the next morning and refuse to give the name that the burglar gave to them.

Several rich homes have been robbed here, and the owners are displeased with the action of the Grey sisters.

A New Tailoring Establishment.

The Model Tailoring Co., H. F. Bloom, manager, recently opened for business at 613 South Ohio street, in one of the new rooms in the Etnett block. The enterprise will do a general tailoring business. A fine line of woolsens are in stock from which suits will be made to your order at moderate prices. There is also a cleaning and pressing department. Manager Bloom is very much impressed with Sedalia and the hospitality of her people, and says he is glad he selected Sedalia to locate in, which was one of many places considered. His establishment is neatly arranged, fresh in appearance and clean. Mr. Bloom has had many words of encouragement and congratulation from business men, which, with the courtesies extended him, all go to make feel "at home" in Sedalia.

NOT COMING TO STATE FAIR

Order Calling Out Second Battalion of State Troops Rescinded.

The state board of agriculture has decided that it is too late to hold the National Guard demonstration at the state fair in Sedalia this year, so the companies that have been ordered to report at the state fair will not get to go, says Friday's Nevada Post. Company H was in the list of companies that were to attend.

The board is heartily in favor of giving these demonstrations, but decided that it would be too late to make a success of it this year. However a demonstration will take place next year in which all the companies of the Second regiment will take part.

SLOW ORDER ON BRANCH

NOT TO EXCEED A SPEED OF 20 MILES AN HOUR ON LEXINGTON DIVISION.

W. E. WILLIAMS' INSPECTION TRIP

Tracks in the Yards in Sedalia Have Been Neglected—Many Broken Anglebars—Main Line in Condition.

Writing from Sedalia under date of Sept. 6, W. E. Williams has the following in Friday afternoon's issue of the Kansas City Post:

By a peculiar coincidence, on the day after the Sedalia newspapers announced that your correspondent would make an inspection of the Lexington line of the Missouri Pacific and on the very day that the inspection was begun, Walter Merrifield, Missouri Pacific trainmaster, issued slow orders for the Lexington line.

These orders prohibit engineers from running more than twenty miles an hour on any part of the Lexington road.

A speed of ten miles an hour must not be exceeded over the Sweet Springs bridge and a portion of the track just west of Aulville.

In reply to criticisms of the Lexington branch, the Missouri Pacific officials may now point to the fact that they have issued slow orders to insure the safety of their passengers and employees. This, however, is not a defence. The public does not desire to transact business or do its traveling on a slow order schedule. If no person was ever injured, and if not one pound of freight should ever be destroyed, these slow orders with which the Missouri Pacific system has been spotted are in themselves a gross imposition upon the public.

Lost Much Business.

I have learned that the condition into which the Missouri Pacific has allowed its track to lapse at various places is now bringing its logical results. I have by indirect, but nevertheless accurate channels, the fact that a number of Missouri Pacific ticket offices have lost much business on account of the track conditions and the agitation for better tracks which the conditions have caused. Sedalia is one of the offices which is feeling the effect of the track conditions. It is said that at all points on the Missouri Pacific system where there is competition, there has been more or less loss of business owing to recent exposures of defects in the roadbed. It being inconvenient yesterday to continue my inspection of the Lexington line, I took a walk of several miles along the main line tracks west of Sedalia. I found in that part of the track a good many things which might be bettered. One of the most noticeable defects in the track was the lack of ballast at some points and the "soft places" under joints for a good part of the distance which I traversed. I also found a number of cracked or broken angle bars, a condition which should not exist in any railway track, if I am to believe railroad men with whom I have talked.

Beginning at a point several hundred yards east of the passenger station, I found a broken angle bar in the main line track.

Soft at Joints.

Walking west, I found nearly every joint in the track more or less sunken or under it a "soft" place, in which the ties constantly "pound" up and down during the passage of trains. In wet weather this pounding changes to "churning." A little further on, near the station, I found a broken angle bar in a switch "opening" passing the station. I found three cracked angle bars, one in the main line and two in the switch track, south of it. One rail in a switch track had no bolts in one end of it. Just beyond this rail, I found another broken angle bar in a switch.

In the yards I found many joints in which there was a difference of from one-half inch to one inch in the height of the meeting rails.

I soon found another cracked angle bar in a switch opening. Within a few feet of this place I found a switch rail which was held at one end by one bolt and with no bolt whatever in the other end. As I went on I found many places in which the loose ties, working up and down under pressure, had broken the dirt and cinder roadbed into clods, had cracked it or had pounded it in to dust. I counted sixteen of these places under successive joints before I had reached the yard limits.

I found a good many joints at which there were defective ties. There were "soft" spots in the track under some of these joints.

Find Split Rails.

I found a number of rails split at the ends. One of these was split for fourteen inches. One rail in a switch was broken off for a distance of three inches.

Out toward the yard limits the "soft" places became more numerous, if anything, than they were near the station. In a number of places, the ties, under my weight as I walked, moved enough to make the rails click. In the distance which I walked I found some eleven cracked or broken angle bars. One or two of these were on a curve, where the ties were not firm or the ballast securely packed around them. Some of these ties would sink slightly under the weight of a man walking on them.

Besides the cracked or broken angle bars, I found about a dozen which were cracked or broken, but not at the joints. Most of the ties outside the yard limits were old. In some places I counted a good many together, for instance, five or six out of seven, in one of two places. Many of the defective ties were under the joints. Under a number of joints, I found two defective ties. One or two of these joints were not well protected by spikes. One joint was not protected at all on the outside by spikes. At one place I found a defective tie under the joint, a split rail end and a broken angle bar. One of the cracked angle bars which I observed was on a trestle. In most of this track there was sufficient ballast, but the ties had not been tamped as well as they might be in a great many places. In a number of places, there was very little ballast. The track, owing to low joints and "soft" places appeared to be somewhat "wobbly."

By the time this article appears in print I shall be continuing my inspection of the Lexington branch from Sweet Springs. I want to take a look at the bridge for which the slow order was issued, as well as at some of the track.

NOT "BOSSIE" FRANCIS

Negro Under Arrest at Birmingham, Ala., Given His Liberty.

Theo. Hyatt, of this city, received a telegram Friday morning from Robert Mosby, who went to Birmingham, Ala., Wednesday to see the negro held there under suspicion of being "Bossie" Francis, saying that he is not Francis, says Friday's Warrensburg Star.

This news only strengthens "Bossie's" reputation of being one of the most artful dodgers the country has ever known.

Arrests have been made all over the country and many times the description of the negroes arrested have tallied in nearly every respect with that of Francis, yet he is an unknown quantity. It has been said that "every negro looks alike," and this probably accounts for the arrest of so many fellows who turn out to be some other negro than Francis.

In a letter to Sheriff Hudson asking for papers in the Francis case, State's Attorney C. D. Ritter, of Birmingham, in speaking of the negro held there, said: "This party has been thoroughly examined by the officers here and answers the published description in every detail, and all are convinced that he is the man you want."

Printed descriptions have been sent broadcast by W. C. Hyatt and rewards aggregating $3,750 are hanging over Francis' head, yet he enjoys his liberty.

There are a great many people who have slight attacks of indigestion and dyspepsia nearly all the time. Their food may satisfy the appetite, but it fails to nourish the body simply because the stomach is not in a fit condition to do the work it is supposed to do. It can't digest the food you eat. The stomach should be given help. You ought to take something that will do the work your stomach can't do. Kodol for indigestion and dyspepsia, a combination of natural digestants and vegetable acids, digests the food itself and gives strength and health to the stomach. Pleasant to take. Sold by Arlington pharmacy.
